» Matchett runner competitive at the weights.

Jack Milner

unners from the stables of Sean Tarry and Paul Peter could fight out the World Sports Betting Grand Heritage (Non-Black Type) over 1475m at the Vaal tomorrow, but do not be surprised if Paul Matchett pops up to spoil the party.

The concept of the WSB Grand Heritage (Non-Black Type) was to expand the size of the field to 28 runners and race it over the unusual distance of 1475m up the Vaal straight.

There were originally 26 runners declared for this year's event but many of the runners were allocated the minimum weight of 52kg and that made it difficult for trainers to find enough jockeys able to ride at that weight.

That resulted in four of the runners opting to race in the WSB Heritage Consolation (Non-Black Type) over the same distance.

With two other runners scratched for different reasons, the field has been reduced to 20 runners. However, many bettors may have received that news with a sigh of relief as it remains a highly competitive race. That is reflected in the wide-open betting for this unique feature race.

Tarry originally had seven horses declared but three of his runners have moved to the Consolation race.

That still leaves him with four very strong competitors in Willow Express, Indlamu, Eskimo Pie and Silver Tycoon. All four have winning potential, but Willow Express, to be ridden by Calvin in the Quartet.

FILLY POWER. Fromheretoeternity takes on the boys in tomorrow's WSB Grand Heritage but loves the course and could be the runner to beat. Picture: JC Photographics Habib, and Indlamu, with Gavin Lerena up, could be the pick of the quartet.

Habib and Tarry teamed up recently to win the Grade 1 Gauteng Summer Cup and they could be successful once again with the four-year-old son of Willow Magic, who drops significantly in class.

He last ran in the Grade 2 OnamissionMile where he finished unplaced but will appreciate the lower level of competition and has good form on the Vaal straight.

Indiamu is ultra-consistent and won on his only appearance at this track. It would come as a major surprise if this four-year-old son of Pomodoro does not finish

Peter also has some decent runners and there is a lot to like about Captain Of All filly Fromheretoeternity. She has run 10 times at this course for three wins and four places and last time triumphed carrying 62kg.

She carries 10kg less and has log-leading jockey Warren Kennedy in the irons.

Peter also saddles Cleveland and Suited Connector, but both will need to do something special to turnaround their last defeat by their stable companion as they both finished behind her and are worse off at the weight.

In any case, Kennedy would have had the option of the three and he appear to have gone with the filly.

But Matchett looks to have useful runner in Bold Jazz. The four-year-old gelding did manage to beat Willow Express last time by 0.30 lengths but is 1kg worse off and that should put them very close together.

What will be interesting is which draws turn out to hold the advantage. Both Bold Jazz and Fromheretoeternity have inside draws while the Tarry's pair are drawn on the middle to outside.

Of course, it does not end there and there are a number of runners with winning chances. This is one Quartet you would love to win as it is sure to produce a really great payout.

Cheyne has the power

Jack Milner

The decision to move Line Of Power from Cape Town to Port Elizabeth has turned out to be a tour de force as the son of What A Winter has not put a foot wrong.

The four-year-old gelding has taken a real liking to the Polytrack and despite being way out of his ground early on in both his races, has produced a superb turn of foot to hit the front close home and yet manages to win easing up.

He had won just once in 18 starts when under the care of Greg Ennion in Cape Town but it is probably the switch to the Polytrack that has done the trick

Backed in to favourite on local debut the four-year-old gelding won full of running over Bumrah who has franked that form with a victory of his own.

Line Of Power looked in deep trouble last time when rival Magic Blaze skipped well clear early in the straight and jockey Greg Cheyne had to pull on all his reserves to get Line Of Power up in the closing stages.

He lines up once again in Race 4 at Fairview today and this Alan Greeff-trained runner will once again team up with Cheyne for this MR 68 Handicap over 1000m.

This time he has landed barrier No 1 and it will be interesting to see whether Cheyne will be able to keep his mount closer to the pace this time around and pull off the hat-trick.

Marmara Sea has had another excellent vear and has always been at his very best on the Polytrack so is clearly the one they all have to beat in Race 7 over Marmara Sea has won nine of 12 starts on this surface and only once a loser over this track and distance.

PREVIEW There was much to admire about the way both Datsalrightgino and Jpr One made winning starts over hurdles, but French bumper winner HARTUR D'OUDAIRIES may be the one with the most potential here on the evidence of a deeply impressive win at Warwick last month. PREVIEW Only an untimely last-fence fall prevented Jonjo O'Neill's 135-rated hurdler COEUR SEREIN from making an impressive winning start over fences at Lingfield and, assuming he's none the worse for that spill, this throws up a chance to gain compensation, despite a 7lb rise. Barbados Buck's raced lazily on his chasing bow at Wetherby but he could prove a different proposition in first-time blinkers and it's too early to write him off given his smart novice hurdle form. Corach Rambler took a huge leap forward when winning decisively over this trip at Aintree off 7lb lower and should again go well.

PREVIEW Competitive stuff with progressive last-time-out winners Quinta Do Mar and Royaume Uni amongst those to consider despite rising marks. Nicky Henderson's Broomfield Burg wasn't seen to best effect in a slowly-run novice hurdle at Newbury last time and remains of interest off his present mark, but any value here may lie with CASTEL GANDOLFO. Fergal O'Blerie's four-year-old stayed on strongly up the hill to grab second in a similar contest here last month and a 2lb rise may underestimate him considering there is clear executed for interesting the progression of the interior.

R30-million Soccer 13 pool!

» Tomorrow's Soccer 13 pool starts with a mega R11.8million carryover and many TAB soccer customers will count on Chelsea and Liverpool to register home victories in their bets.

By Mark Gleeson

here's a chance to win a small fortune tomorrow because TAB's Soccer 13 pool starts with a carryover of R11.8 million that should drive the final pool total past R30 million!

The carryover pool comprises four English Premiership and nine Championship matches and that's a brew which could produce an explosive payout.

On the face of it there are two bankers in Premiership contenders Chelsea and Liverpool, who are both at home to sides of significantly less quality. But Chelsea have not looked razorsharp in recent clashes and Liverpool legend Steven Gerrard would love to pull a rabbit out the hat on his return to his onetime happy hunting ground as manager of Aston Villa.

But for many TAB soccer customers, tomorrow's Soccer 10 pool will be a more attractive bet, especially because it contains an appealing mixture of PSL and English Premiership Supersport United put an end to Sundowns' long sequence of clean sheets three weeks ago when they drew 2-2. The two clubs meet again on Saturday night and Supersports chances of causing an upset have been diminished because several of their players have COVID-19. Picture: Backpagepix

The DStv Premiership reaches the halfway point of the season this weekend with champions Mamelodi Sundowns enjoying a runaway lead. Their 15th game of the season is another derby with SuperSport United, just three weeks after their 2-2 draw at Loftus Versfeld which marked the end of the Brazilian's recordbreaking sequence of clean sheets in the league.

It's the last match in the Soccer 10 pool and Sundowns look a banker as they march effortlessly towards another league title. Baroka are now last on the PSL log and the return of coach Kgoloko Thobejane has not made a difference.

If anything they are sliding further into the abyss and are not expected to improve when they host Cape Town City tomor-Chippa United won a first game under new coach Kurt Lentjies but have lost two since. They host AmaZulu tomorrow with little hope of adding to their two wins this season.

The arrival of Dan Malesela at Marumo Gallants has sparked a turnaround in domestic fortunes for the side. Few would have given them much hope at Sekhukhune United on Wednesday, the in-form team in the league, but they won 1-0.

In his four league games since taking the helm, Malesela has taken 10 points from a possible 12 and they can take a further stride forward away at Swallows FC on Saturday.

KERR NEEDS A WORK PERMIT

Swallows FC hope to have a work permit in place for new coach Dylan Kerr ahead of tomorrow's home game against Marumo Gallants. He took over last weekend, but was unable to sit on the bench for the draw against Maritzburg United and the late win over Baroka FC on Wednesday because he did not yet have a work permit.

BENZEMA SET TO MISS DERBY

Real Madrid forward Karim Benzema had to go off early with a hamstring strain in last weekend's game against Real Sociedad. He had to miss Real's Champions League win over Inter Milan and is doubtful for Sunday's derby against Atletico Madrid.

COVID FOR SUPERSPORT 4

Four key SuperSport United players have returned positive COVID-19 tests and they must do without Luke Fleurs, Kudakwashe Mahachi, Sipho Mbule and Tebeho Mokoena in tomorrow night's derby against Mamelodi Sundowns in Atteridgeville.

5 WITH COVID AT CHELSEA

A positive COVID-19 test for Mateo Kovacic has added to the list of absentees at Chelsea, who have Jorginho, Ngolo Kante, Ben Chilwell and Trevor Chalobah out for the weekend's English Premier League action.

CTC HOPE TO HAVE 3 BACK

Cape Town City have hoping to have skipper Thamsanga Mkhize, Surprise Ralani and Abubakar Mobara back as they travel to Limpopo to take on Baroka FC tomorrow and then Marumo Gallants on Tuesday. They'll stay in Polokwane between the two matches.

INJURIES HIT LEEDS HARD

Hamstring problems have robbed Leeds United of the services of Kalvin Phillips and Patrick Bamford. Phillips could be out for two months, while Bamford hurt himself celebrating his late equaliser against Brentford on Sunday. The loss of the two players is a huge blow to Leeds in their battle avoid relegation.

R2 TO PLAY RECORD PAYOUT R2.1 MILLION!

Saturday 11 December S10 V1

M1 Baroka FC vs Cape Town City: Four of the last five meetings between these clubs have ended in a draw, with the odd game out seeing City edge Baroka 1-0 at home two seasons ago. M2 Chippa United vs Ama-Zulu: Chippa have not won a home game this season with four goalless draws and losses to Orlando Pirates and Golden Arrows. AmaZulu's last three away games have all ended in score draws.

M<sub>3</sub> Swallows FC vs Marumo Gallants: Swallows have failed to win any of their last seven home matches. Last season, when Gallants were still called TTM, they forced an away draw at Dobsonville against the Birds. M4 Arsenal vs Southampton: The Saints have forced draws on their last two visits to Arsenal, but only won four times away against the Gunners in 46 past visits.

M5 Chelsea vs Leeds United: Chelsea have dropped points in both their last two home league games at Stamford Bridge against Burnley and Manchester United. Leeds have lost on their last four visits to Chelsea.

M6 Liverpool vs Aston Villa: Liverpool had the famous 7-2 setback away at Villa Park last season, but at Anfield have won three in a row over Villa, now managed by former Liverpool legend Steven Gerrard.

M7 Deportivo Alaves vs Getafe: The last three meetings between these LaLiga outfits were all goalless draws. And the match before those three ended 1-1.

M8 Orlando Pirates vs TS Galaxy: Pirates failed to beat Galaxy last season when they met them for the first time, losing away after a 1-1 draw at the Orlando Stadium.

M9 Norwich City vs Manchester United: Norwich are bottom of the Premier League and have lost their last four home games against the Red Devils.

M10 SuperSport United vs Mamelodi Sundowns: This is the second meeting between the Tshwane rivals inside a month after SuperSport's dramatic come-from-behind 2-2 draw at Loftus that ended Sundowns' run of clean sheets.

Millard has high hopes for Panfield in G1 Cup

GATE: TRAINER DELIGHTED AS HIS CHARGE LANDS NO 1 DRAW

home team's defence of the HK$30 million Grade 1 Longines Hong Kong Cup over 2000m, Panfield will break from gate No 1 against 11 rivals from Japan, Great Britain, Ireland and Hong Kong as he looks to bounce back from an unexpected form blip last month.

earing up to lead the Speaking at this morning's barrier draw at Sha Tin, trainer Tony Millard walked away pleased as he eyes Hong Kong's most lucrative race in three days.

"It's a lovely draw, it gives you options and we're certainly very happy with it, there's a lot worse draws than that - I couldn't be happier," he said.

Bred in Chile and raced there to a hat-trick of Grade 1 scores, Panfield added to his burgeoning record with victory in last season's Grade 1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup over 2400m.

And upon resumption this campaign, Millard wound up the son of Lookin At Lucky masterfully to win the Grade 2 Oriental Watch 60th Anniversary Sha Tin Trophy Handicap (1600m) his first start after scoring over 2400m at the top level last term.

Last start, Panfield faded to the tail in the Grade 2 BOCHK Jockey Club Cup (2000m).

"He's been good since that last run. Frankly speaking that last run, it was one of those races that you want to forget and we're just looking forward.

Kong Jockey Club

"He's come through his preparation well, he had a nice gallop the other day and this morning he sprinted up well, he's a fresh horse, so it's going to be a question of whether he is good enough," Millard said.

A dual-Derby winning handler, Millard will look to capture his second crown at the Hong Kong International Races after the brilliant Ambitious Dragon prevailed in the 2012 Hong Kong Mile.

"The Japanese – they're just outstanding horses and they've travelled around the world, so it's going to be a good yardstick for us to see where we are but I'm certainly happy with my horse - he's done everything that I have wanted," he said.

Panfield will face Ka Ying Star,

Glorious Dragon, Hishi Iguazu, Russian Emperor, Tourbillon Diamond, Berlin Tango, Dubai Honour, Mac Swiney, Bolshoi Ballet, Lei Papale and Loves Only You.

Earlier, Millard had considered testing the mettle of Hong Kong's reigning Champion Stayer in the Grade 1 Hong Kong Vase

"Basically, he was the best horse in Hong Kong over 2000m last season, similar to Golden Sixty who was the best horse over 1600m yet he won over 2000m too but they didn't pick to run the 2000, instead they picked the

"So, it's the same scenario with Panfield, he was the best horse in the race when he won the 2400m (Champions & Chater Cup) but we decided to go for the race that is best suited for him," Millard out-

Nearing the 700-win mark in Hong Kong, Tony Millard has enjoyed a fine career in the Far East since his arrival from South Africa over 20 years ago.

"You have to take into account that when you go for the 2400m, you're going into the area of the Galileos and the like and they are proper 2400m horses, they're not the best horses in the field - they're the best horses in the world," he said.

Sunday's 10-race fixture at Sha Tin features four Grade 1 contests, the Hong Kong Vase (2400m), Hong Kong Sprint (1200m), Hong Kong Mile (1600m) and LONGINES Hong Kong Cup (2000m).

Gandolfo for win at Cheltenham

London - Castel Gandolfo may have been a surprise package when finishing second at 50-1 last time out - but it will be no shock if he goes one better in the Catesby Handicap Hurdle at Cheltenham.

Only two horses in a field of 18 were bigger prices than Castel Gandolfo, with Fergal O'Brien's four-year-old outrunning his odds with a highly promising display.

His jumping let him down, but he stayed on strongly up the hill at Cheltenham and got within 2.25 lengths of the winner McAlpine at the line.

The O'Brien team will no doubt have worked on Castel Gandolfo's schooling and they can be rewarded with victory at their local track.

Enrilo can make amends for falling in the Ladbrokes Trophy by gaining compensation in the Betfair Handicap Chase. The Paul Nicholls-trained seven-year-old looked to be going as well as anything when coming down at the 14th fence in the prestigious staying handicap chase won by Cloudy

As long as that race has not left its mark, Enrilo can land a deserved success. He was first past the post in the bet365 Gold Cup at Sandown in April only to be demoted to third in the stewards' room.

Sporting John can defy a 2.5KG rise in the ratings in the Citipost Handicap Hurdle after bouncing back to form on this track last month.

It was only in February he was a Grade 1 winner over fences, only to lose his way in two subsequent starts at the top level.

However, following a break that included wind surgery, the Philip Hobbs-trained six-year-old made a triumphant return to the smaller obstacles. That would have done him the world of good and he can go in again.

Diesel D'Allier can build on his sterling effort on Cheltenham's cross-country course last month on his first start for Richard Bandey to go two places better in the Glenfarclas Crystal Cup Cross Country Handicap Chase.

The eight-year-old looked the likely winner when taking the lead two out, being run out of it close home and having to settle for minor honours behind Back On The Lash.

There could be a bit more to come as that was his first start since April and he may have needed time to acclimatise to new surroundings.

However, he knows what it takes to win on the track, having struck in November 2019 when trained in France by Emmanuel Clayeux. – Press Association

Golden Sixty chases HK history

to date and the chance to create history, Hong Kong's Horse of the Year Golden Sixty will step away from barrier two in Sunday's HK$26 million Grade 1 Hong Kong Mile (1600m), much to the satisfaction of trainer Francis Lui at yesterday morning's barrier draw at Sha Tin.

"He is all ready, and we're hoping that luck will come to my team and my owner - and to me too,"

Gearing up for his toughest test Lui said. "Barrier No 2 is ok - we'll just relax him and wait for the straight, and then we can just let him go."

This weekend, the six-year-old son of Medaglia d'Oro will bid to extend his winning thread to 16 and his overall tally to 19 wins – a new local record in Hong Kong.

"We are very happy with him, he came out of that first run very well - in that race over the first 800m the pace was very slow, that gave the other horses a little trouble but Golden Sixty, he just has a very good turn of foot now - he knows where the finish is.

"Honestly, the trials he's had didn't show much. I think he hadn't run for a few months' time and when it came time to run that first time he showed he is more mature, more relaxed and more comfortable," Lui said.

Golden Sixty shares the current mantle of 18 wins in town with Silent Witness and Beauty Generation. And Lui describes the quirky but incredibly talented gelding as the horse of a lifetime.

"In all of a lifetime I think you can't find this kind of horse. I'm lucky and Hong Kong is lucky to have him too," he said.

Golden Sixty will have his final gallop today at Sha Tin with Vincent Ho aboard in the early hours of the morning. - Hong Kong Jockey Club

Van Zyl to call the tune at Greyville

Jack Milner

As is so often the case, racing at Hollywoodbets Greyville on Sunday has its fair share of traps, but there could be two good bets on the eight-race card on the turf track – and both are trained by Gareth van Zyl.

Standout bet has to be Winter for fillies and mares over 1400m.

She made her debut for Van Zyl in mid-November and cut through her field impressively, but an obstacle-filled passage saw her go down less than 0.50

She does have to jump from No 9 draw which is not ideal but with experience on the track, Craig

She finished ahead of many who will reoppose her in Race 4, a MR 76 Handicap for fillies and mares over 1600m, and it looks most unlikely for those to turn it around, especially back over the same trip as when she won her

Shape Of You has been priced up at 4-1 and looks a most attractive bet at that those odds.

FORECAST BETTING 9-10 CLIFF TOP; 4-1 CRUISE CONTROL, SAND BANK, THEN IN FOCUS; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW Year after year and season after season trainer Alan Greeff has picked up many of these early juvenile races and it will not be much of a surprise were he to take out this event as well. It is probably worth taking into account he is sending out just the one entrant. CLIFF TOP, a Canford Cliffs colt will have stable jockey Greg Cheyne in the irons. Rival trainer Gavin Smith usually picks up most of the juvenile races Greeff doesn't win but in his case it is more difficult to pick which of his runners is the right one as jockey bookings do not render any help. Apprentice Yuzae Ramzan claims 2.5kg on SAND BANK so could perhaps be preferred to CRUISE CONTROL or THEN IN FOCUS.

MAYFERN and MEENEERA both come in good form and deserve to be included in all bets. FLORIDA KEYS is consistent and could win on local debut. EUROPEANA is clearly better than her last run would suggest and her trainer's raiders are always worth including. ABIA disappointed last time but can also bounce back.

FORECAST BETTING 18-10 MARMARA SEA; 3-1 WILD COAST; 5-1 HERODOTUS; 12-1 AND UP-

PREVIEW MARMARA SEA has an excellent record on this surface and is clearly the one to beat. He has some fair back-up in the form of CARIOCA and STEP LIVELY who have had their best year to date and must be considered. Visiting trainer Justin Snaith has sent WILD COAST to take him on and this Trippi five-year-old was not beaten far at Greyville when he tried this surface and could be good enough to win a race like this. HERO DOTUS did well to win his local debut and deserves respect. SNOW REPORT should prefer this longer distance

FORECAST BETTING 4-1 HIKARU; 5-1 LINGUEE; 6-1 ON YOUR MARKS, CAPE POINT; 12-1 AND

PREVIEW A few long-time battlers in this. ON YOUR MARKS and HIKARU have been consistent without winning and although both should be right there at the finish, it is possible something can improve to beat them. LINGUEE has a terrible draw for his jockey to overcome but has run some decent races of late and a change of tactics could pay off. NUSSPLY and QUEEN LOUISE both tend to lack a strong finish but are also not out of it. WAR MAN could improve trying the Polytrack for the first time.

PREVIEW POPPY OF BAYEUX was unlucky on the poly in her penultimate and hopefully gets a clear passage this time. She has run well over this trip and a 4kg apprentice claim could give an added advantage. But FLAG OF WREN showed good pace on turf last time and turned in a useful performance the last time she raced on the synthetic. She could get much closer. ZURI'S STAR and TIDE IS HIGH met males last time and were not disgraced. The former may have needed it and has the better draw so can improve. IRON CHEF and CARNELdisglaced. The Order may have needed it and has the better than 80 can improve. Inch of her an ownself.

IAN BAY could also get into the fight for money.

PREVIEW PRINCEKRESH is another fast individual. He was too good on the turf in his last three and looks worth a try on the poly. 4 4kg claim will boost his chances. COLDHARDCASH tried to go up there on the turf last time and it didn't suit. His form on the poly is very good and it won't be a surprise to see him challenge for the win from gate No 1. PREVIEW Tough fillies and mares handicap to open the Pick 6, BIG SKY COUNTRY showed good composure after a rest, running a fair race against high-class males. That form should stand up against her sex. NIKIYA was gaining hand over fist at the wire last time and looked unlucky to lose. Her last win was over this longer trip so rates a serious contender. FLASHY KAITRINA is also very useful on the poly but has been running on the turf of late. She has dropped in the ratings and has drawn well - good value bet. LADY LEGEND can get away from them with a 4kg claim. ETHIOPIAN QUEEN is capable.

FORECAST BETTING 22-16 EVENTIDOR; 4-1 HEAD GARDENER, LUCRETIUS; 6-1 GIANTS CASTLE; 8-1 WITHOUT DOUBT; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW B EVENTIDOR caught the eye on debut, which was on the poly and was supported when over the same distance on the turf. He appears a lot better than that run, especially as he is bred for distance and this trip looks ideal. LUCRETIUS disappointed after running a cracker and has since been gelded. He could show true form if not needing it after a rest. HEAD GARDENER was eye catching a few runs back but has not produced winning performance since. He looks to need the race run to suit and may just get that as there doesn't look to be a lot of speed in the race. GIANTS CASTLE is the upset type.

JUSTFORTHEEPENNY, SEA SPONGE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW CALGARY has improved with each run of late and could keep going. He won well enough to suggest he could win again and does look well placed. MASTER TOBE came back to form when returning to his best track and is better off at the weights with CALGARY, so should give a good account of himself. KHIZA is the dark horse. He made good improvement last time and the youngster could prefer the drop in distance. FLY-ING VISION wasn't disgraced in a stronger race last time and will try to go all the way with start-to-finish tactics. JUSTFORTHEEPENNY is capable of popping up.

PREVIEW GROOMEDTOWIN won his maiden in good style and meets a lower division field on handicap debut. He could relish the poly. ROY'S COMMAND is better than his last race when jumping a bit slowly. He has drawn wild and needs to be taken seriously. FISTS OF FIRE finished ahead of him the last two times they met but he has drawn widest and will need luck in running. LIVING WATERS won't be far off either but has also drawn wide. He ran in a stronger race last time and must still be included. Many have earning potential.

PREVIEW MONTFORT almost got the better of JACKSON WELLS a few runs back and then confirmed with an impressive win, albeit in lesser company. The handicapper was impressed and has upped her ratings but she looks capable of winning again. JACKSON WELLS is on a roll though and will make it tough for her. However, she has drawn wide. WISHFUL GIRL LINN caught the eye on the turf last time and won her previous appearance over track and trip. TIME TO ROLL put it together having matured and could follow up. FIRE FAERIE, JACK'S BIRD and PURPLE PERSUASION add to a tough race.

PREVIEW FANTASTIC IMPACT has run two good races in a row over this track and trip and only a wide draw looks to be of concern. But he does have Warren Kennedy up and should have every chance. LUCK OF THE IRIS has been doing a lot better these days and is obviously maturing. She has a more experied rider up and could prefer the drop in trip. The same can be said of MISS JACQUELINE who was not disgraced from a wide draw in her last race. She now has the best of the draws. PINEVIEW has shown potential and could progress after a rest, PROTEA PRIDE has claims as well.

The PREVIEW SHE'S MY CAPTAIN was making her debut when finishing behind ROCK ON CAPTAIN and improved with experience to turn the tables on that rival last time. The former has finished 2nd in both starts over this trip and should improve further under an accomplished work rider to open her account, with her familiar foe expected to pose the biggest hireat again. ROSE OF MINE and AFRICAN WINTER are likely to make their presence felt again after improved last starts. JURY DUTY could make further progress to earn a cheque too.

PREVIEW Tricky. SONIC BURST was an impressive winner in a similar contest over track and trip last time. She was upped four points but should go well again with a repeat of that performance. CARIBBEAN SUNSET and DIFFERENT FACE were all returning from respective breaks when finishing behind that trival and should, with improved fitness on their side, pose more of a threat on these revised terms. Speedy KISSING POINT and IMPRESSIVE QUEEN drop in class and trip having contested features over further last time, so must also be respected. Good recel. also be respected. Good race!

PREVIEW

MA BLACK has found her niche over this trip and been impressive in winning both starts this term. She was too good for a few of these over course and distance last time and, despite the revised weight terms, could have their measure again in her peak outing. SEEKING PEACE, WHAT A BLIZZARD, CHILLY WINTER and PRINCESS SANTO are all better off at the weights with that rival so should pose more of a threat IMPOSING ANGEL and FEARLESS TRIP will appreciate a return to this trip and could make their presence felt too.

REWRITE THE STARS; 7-1 FORRIES FOREVER; 8-1 JASMINE; 10-1 REGINA ISABELLA PREVIEW Maturing CELTIC NIGHT has won her last 2 starts well but faces an uphill task completing the hal-trick. She is progressive but concedes weight to all, including several who are better off at the weights for recent defeats. FLOWER OF SAIGON may have found 200m too far in her second run after a rest and a return to this trip should suit in her peak outing. REWRITE THE STARS is better off at the weights with those rivals and could be rewarded for consistency on these terms. CRIMSON PRINCESS is consistent at this level and likely to stake a claim too. FORRIES FOREVER could also have a say.

PREVEW Open. KAYO AL capitalised on a lower rating to win last time but faces a tougher task repeating that success off a 4-point higher mark in this company. MAGNA MATER and MEL'S PRINCESS made no impression on their handicap debuts and will need to improve off the same marks to play a role, although the former does take on weaker than she did last time. CALL IT FATE is likely to improve for the step in trip so should have a say, while WHATSINADREAM could also have more to offer with blinkers now fitted. Improving DAWNOFANEWDAY should also improve over the extra and could follow up on handicap debut.

PREVIEW Of those with experience, just 3 appear to have winning chances. Both CHARLIE SQUAD-RON and TOUT A FAIT wouldn't be winning out of turn after several near misses. The pair are closely matched on form and likely to appreciate the longer run-in, so should play a leading role. FORECAST BETTING 2-1 CLARKSON; 5-1 TABEBUIA; 6-1 WITH PLEASURE; 7-1 FLAG BEARER; 8-1

ABSOLUTE VALUE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW CLARKSON has improved to run well in both races since returning from a layoff and should open his account if making further progress. WITH PLEASURE enjoyed racing without blinkers last time and can pose a threat if reproducing that effort. FLAG BEARER stayed on well to finish behind that rival last time and could stake a claim too with the step-up in trip likely to suit. KZN raider TABEBUIA returns from a lengthy layoff but showed enough as a 2yo to warrant respect ahead of his Highveld debut. DUKE OF RAIN, who showed improvement last time, and ABSOLUTE VALUE, (excuses last time) are others to consider.

PREVIEW Good race. Promising JUST FABULOUS fluffed her lines when heavily supported last time. She's better than that run suggests and still has scope for improvement, so could be worth another chance, though must concede weight to all. DAMOVA built on a pleasing debut effort over shorter to open her account last time and is likely to make further improvement stepped up in trip, so is worth following. BELLA SWAN and EMERALD PRINCESS ran well enough on handicap debut to stake a claim once more. The latter caught the eye over shorter last time and should have more to give stepped up in triP.

**PREVIEW** Progressive ROSAPRIMA was returning from a rest when cruising in to win a similar contest on handicap debut. She was handed a helfy 8pts penalty, so must carry top weight of 61kg, and has been drawn wide. She does, however, race well close to the speed so is likely to go forward again and may have things her own way. Stablemate MS FLOWER POWER won well after a rest too but it interesting to note that she has been declared to run with blinkers again. MAMAQUEARA is holding form and should give a good account in her peak outing. TWICE THE TRIP, ME TIME and returning DANCE LESSON could get involved too.

PREVIEW MAUBY has found her niche racing over this and similar distances. She was returning from a rest when winning well last time out and should make another bold winning bid with improved fitness on her side. SHE'S A CRACKER renews rivalry on better terms and should also strip fitter so ought to pose more of a threat, as is hat-trick seeking MASAAKEN who is maturing and developing into a useful stayer. SMILEY RIVER was outclassed in a feature over this trip but should fare better in these calmer waters, while NABEELA could also make her presence felt trying this trip after a comeback run over shorter.

FORECAST BETTING 7-1 INDLAMU, ESKIMO PIE; 8-1 BOLD JAZZ; 10-1 MISS ELEGANCE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW Big field, many with chances. INDLAMU has not finished out of the first 3 in 11 starts and, while hard to win with recently, should make another bold bid. ESKIMO PIE, on the other hand, has found form of late, winning 3 of his last 4. He's gone up 14 points as a result but is racing at the top of his game and likely to give another competitive account. Fellow last-start winner BOLD JAZZ and lightly raced SILVER TYCOON, who is distance suited, could give cheek if at best. MARDI GRAS and APPROACH CONTROL are capable of staking claims as are NOBLE STRIKER and unexposed POWER RANGER. Tricky!

FORECAST BETTING: 5-1 BOWIE; 6-1 CAPTAIN HINDSIGHT; 7-1 STORMY WINTER; 8-1 CITY BY THE SEA; 10-1 WHORLY WHORLY, SPANISH BOY; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW II Tricky, BOWIE was withdrawn from the Grand Heritage and should find his task in the consolation an easier one racing of this last winning mark. It's been a long time between drinks for SPANISH BOY who finished 3rd in the Grand Heritage last year and has bumped one better in each of his last 2 starts, but he wouldn't be winning out of turn and should be competitive. Both CITY BY THE SEA and CAPTAIN HINDSIGHT arrive in good form and are likely to make their presence felt, which could also be said of consistent STORMY WINTER. Others could get involved too.

WINTEH. Ulmers could get involved too.

Stable companion LOVE LIES returns from a short break and could earn some more money. BUCK'S FIZZ was a disappointment last time but could be better than that run and should not be leave him out of any exotic perm. PREVIEW NO SHOT WONDER disappointed a bit after showing promise at Scottsville. His best run was over this distance and he needs to be taken seriously, QUIZ MASTER ran two good seconds in a row over further but should be fresh after a rest and can go one better. GUY FOX was demoted after winning three starts back and has since finished runner-up. Must surely get it right soon. JOSHUA HOTSNAKE has shown potential and has been supported. A change of tactics may be employed and he could be dangerous. GAUL RULER gave signs last time - there are also first-timers in it.

PREVIEW WINTER MELODY was unlucky not to win her debut. She could not find a clear passage until late and was beaten under a length. She should not go backwards but a wide draw is a concern. TEMPLEHOFF also has speed in her pedigree and may not mind the trip. She has shown fair form when fitted with blinkers but sacing before this - watch her there. LEOPARD LADY was most unlucky in her last race as she was hampered at a crucial stage. NKALANZINZI showed good pace when finishing just behind WINTER MELODY.

FORECAST BETTING 3-1 ALPENHORN; 7-2 STATEOFUSA; 4-1 TRITON, DUKE OF ORANGE; 7-1 MINGSHI; 8-1 SIR THEODORE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS

■ PREVIEW ■ There is more improvement expected from ALPENHORN. He showed little in two runs over shorter but fitted with blinkers after gelding he turned in a good performance. Can score if he settles. DUKE OF ORANGE runs like he wants the longer distance. He has run two good races in a row and the fitting of blinkers may also boost his chances. STATEOFUSA needs to find a little more to win and perhaps the drop in distance could be what he is looking for. TRITON ran well with a spread shoe and has drawn well again so must go in. The dark horse is recently gelded well-bred MINGSHI.

PREVIEW MARIA COROLINA, SHAPE OF YOU; 9-2 PHINCESS ANASIASIA; 6-1 FOHGETFUL GIRL, LUCKY MISS; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW MARIA COROLINA did not enjoy the drop to 1400m last time and back to her best trip should make them all run hard. She has drawn well to boot. But SHAPE OF YOU was eye catching after a rest and should be even better over the longer distance over which she won her maiden. She can notch up win No 2. LUCKY MISS won her maiden well enough to suggest she has plenty more in the tank. She could make a successful handicap debut. HOT STRIKE ran well out of maiden company but has drawn wide after a rest. PRINCESS ANASTASIA and FORGETFUL GIRL must be respected on latest efforts.

PREVIEW BANZAI PIPELINE has been on a roll and his good form is set to continue. However, he does like a bit of a test and will prefer the going soft and/or a good pace. MASTER OF DESTINY would be deserving and he is 3kg better off with BANZAI PIPELINE for a 1.40-length defeat so must rate a big chance. By MALONE impressed in strong company straight out of the maidens and could be anything over the longer distance. He has the best of the draws. FARLAND, MR PIGALLE and NAVAL SECRET should be in the firing line as well. LADY SERENA could enjoy the trip.

WHAT A BLAST; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW

It could finally be PINK FLOYD's time. He had been flying up on turf and poly only to be denied a short head and then in his last two had to overcome wide draws and other obstacles. The drop in distance is the only slight concern. However, highly regarded youngster TUK TUK won a gutsy contest and is not one to be taken lightly on handicap debut. He could be better than rated. TWO OF US has run numerous good seconds and is another to consider for the win. He was ousted by a promising youngster last time but that run may have come too soon for TUK TUK, so he can do it. More with claims in it.

PREVIEW ■ ONE TOO MANY won his debut without much fanfare but jumped slowly and had to switch, making the win more credible. In any case, he should have improved during the 84-day break. MASTER KEEKU may have won his maiden after promotion but he followed that up with a fair post-maiden effort when switching to turf. He has the best of the draws. PRINCESS SABRINA could be the one to beat as her record locally and upcountry has been good this season. WE ALL CHOMIES is overdue and may prefer the minimum trip on the turf at Greyville. # Fitter Bayou set to improve

COMEBACK: 2020 UAE OAKS WINNER WAS IN NEED OF HER LAST RUN

→ Prevent expected to enjoy the step up to 1800m.

Ed Marnane

acing returns to Jebel Ali today for a seven-race card, highlighted by a quality 1800m handicap, Race 6. Classic winner Down On Da Bayou, trained by Salem bin Ghadayer, heads a select field of six for the valuable event.

The daughter of Kentucky Derby winner Super Saver, 19 length winner of the UAE Oaks at Meydan in February 2020, struggled last season, albeit in stronger company. She showed signs of a revival on her seasonal reappearance last month, finishing a respectable fourth behind Al Qaqaa.

She's entitled to come on for the race, her first start in 230 days and warrants respect in the hands of French rider Xavier Ziani.

Royston Ffrench rides Monoski for bin Ghadayer, the former Mark Johnston trained gelding has been kept busy this winter and is having his fourth run of the campaign. He has progressed with racing and his latest run, in a valuable handicap at Sharjah, was rock-solid effort, only finding the progressive Far Sky too strong in the 16-runner event. Monoski makes plenty of appeal in an open race.

Al Qaqaa, a winner on his seasonal debut, has to concede weight to his five rivals for trainer Doug Watson. Owned by Shadwell, he wasn't harshly treated by the handicapper for his recent victory at Meydan and is open to improvement on just his fourth start in the UAE. Tadhg O'Shea, the nine-time UAE champion jockey and season's leading rider, had the choice of the Zabeel Stables pair Sanad Libya and Champit, and has elected to ride the former.

Winner on his Jebel Ali debut in February last year, he won't lack for fitness having run twice this season, both times running with credit in defeat. However, he looks vulnerable off his current rating and may have to settle for minor honours.

Rookie trainer Bhupat Seemar has booked apprentice Sean Kirrane to ride Champit on his Jebel Ali debut. Based on his local debut at Meydan, he looks a forlorn hope and is readily dismissed having trailed in 21 lengths behind Imperial Empire last month.

Prevent, representing a yard enjoying an excellent season, completes the field and has sound claims under the in-form and talented Irish rider Ray Dawson. By Poet's Voice, he made a pleasing start to his UAE career when third here last month, a performance that caught the eye.

He kept on nicely in the closing stages behind Untold Secret and Exciting Days over a mile, suggesting he will enjoy the step up to 1800m

Royal Appointment, wide-margin winner of a modest maiden at Jebel Ali last month, is hard to oppose in the 1000m handicap, Race 4. Doug Watson's gelding ran out a comfortable winner to get off at the mark, slamming Sports Reporter and five others when a heavily supported favourite. He is the most unexposed runner in this field and is expected to follow up.

Erwan Charpy, fresh from saddling a

1-2 the National Day Cup (Listed) at Abu Dhabi on Sunday, saddles Tashaaboh, the chief threat to the selection in a race lacking strength in depth. He progressed steadily last season, signing off with a creditable third behind Lytham St Annes on his first appearance at Jebel Ali.

The lack of fitness on the back of a ninemonth break is an obvious concern for the Shadwell-owned six-year-old, particularly from a yard that isn't renewed to have them primed and ready when returning from spell on the sidelines.

Racing closes with a 1600m maiden and Yurman looks the likely winner for Zabeel Stables and Tadhg O'Shea. Formerly trained by Mike de Kock, he made a pleasing start for Bhupat Seemar following a lengthy break at Jebel Ali two weeks ago.

He was no match for the Ahmad bin Harmash-trained Island Rule, bumping into a potential smart prospect that earned a lofty rating of 88 for the victory. Island Rule will put the form to the test when he makes his handicap debut earlier in the afternoon.

Yurman renews rivalry with Express Route, Leadership and Take It Thunder and no reason why the Zabeel Stables' inmate won't uphold the form, particularly going up to a mile and stripping fitter for the run.

Earlier on the card seven have been declared for the 1200m maiden, Race 3. This is a weak contest, attracting a field of largely modest types and won't take much winning. Bhupat Seemar's No Limits, the mount of Tadhg O'Shea, gets the vote on his first appearance since being gelded in the off-season.

The well-bred son of Siyouni, a half-brother to Group 1 winner Regal Parade, had four starts last season, putting up his best run when close second to Uncle Hamad over this course.

The Seemar and O'Shea partnership can enjoy success with Law Of Peace in the opening 1400m handicap, thirty minutes earlier.

The former Racing In Dubai Sales graduate created a good impression on his seasonal reappearance, going narrowly to Eshtiraak after travelling strongly.

He failed to build on that promise next time when stepped up in distance, trailing in eighth behind Untold Secret. He can be forgiven that lacklustre performance having endured a tough, wide trip from stall No 14. He can easily bounce back and take his career tally to two
