GOOD BET: DE KOCK RUNNER CAN GET PUNTERS OFF TO A WINNING START AT THE VAAL

»> Tarry runners could fight out Grand Heritage.

Muzi Yeni

acing today takes place at the Vaal and it's the biggest meeting of the year at the track. It's the WSB Grand Heritage meeting, which is a one-of-a-kind race in the country.

Personally, I am a massive fan of the race, and I must take the opportunity to thank World Sports Betting for their ongoing support as sponsors, which has assisted in getting a decent stake for the event.

The lovely and unique part of this race is it gives an opportunity for middle-of-the-range horses to race for good money and it allows for a wider spread of opportunity for trainers, jockeys and of course, owners.

I must say it's been a testing time on the Highveld with all the rain and thunderstorms but well done to everyone concerned in keeping the show on the road.

However, I've had a good week and I managed to score a hattrick of wins last Saturday, even though the last three races were abandoned.

Our best bet on the card came home lonely in the form of Stunning Kitten and hopefully we can follow up with this week's suggestions.

Last week also saw the Grade 1 Cape Fillies Guineas take place and it was a fantastic race. I think Desert Miracle was slightly unlucky, but the result is in the frame and congrats to the winning connections on a wonderful victory with Chansonette.

Now on to today's Vaal 10-race card. Once again, I have received a lot of support and I have a total of seven rides after the scratching of Muleta.

Race 1 is a Maiden Plate for filthe form of Angelsea.

I'm surprised she hasn't won a race already, but this is the perfect opportunity for her to shed her maiden tag.

Her main danger is Dame Of Flames who is another who should win a race shortly. She is in good form and will be right there.

They both have decent draws and I'm pretty confident they'll fight out the finish, but I think Angelsea will finally get out the maidens.

Race 2 is a Maiden Plate over 1700m and I ride Harold The Duke who gets blinkers for the first time, so hopefully that will improve him.

He definitely shows better work than he produces in a race so I'm hoping for a more positive run. This is a more open race, but I think Clarkson is the horse to beat. He ran well last time and if he repeats that he will just about win.

Alabaster is another to confillies and mares over 2400m and Race 3 is a MR 87 Handicap for three-year-old fillies and it's an-

I ride She's A Cracker to whom I give a massive chance. Her work has been decent, and I think she can definitely be right there.

My main danger is Masaaken who has won two on the bounce and is drawn well so could be right there again while Keepingthepeace and Mauby must also be considered.

Race 6 is the World Sports Betting Sophomore over 1000m and I ride Team Gold who has been putting up some lovely work with the blinkers.

I think he is a massive runner on what I've been feeling and is my value bet on the day.

Master Archie is definitely a VALUE BET main danger after a good run in form.

Race 7 is the WSB Grand Heritage Handicap over the unique trip of 1475m and I ride Power Ranger who comes in with bottom weight, but he will have to improve drastically to win.

I think Willow Express is a big runner and must be included into all bets. Indlamu is also in good form and rates the main danger while the sponsors' horse Bold Jazz is another with a massive chance and could pull off a memorable win for everyone.

Even though it's a big field, I think these horses will get you through all bets but go as wide as the budget allows.

Race 8 is the WSB Consolation over 1475m and I ride Spanish Boy who I believe is the horse to beat.

He has run two phenomenal races and in my opinion, will definitely enjoy the step-up in trip.

My main danger is Bowie who is in good form and will be right there while City By The Sea is another who must be included.

Race 9 is a MR 84 Handicap for fillies and mares over 1100m and my ride Muleta has been scratched.

This is a wide-open race so go as wide as the budget will allow, but for smaller bets I would focus on these horses.

My narrow first selection is Alula's Star who is in good form and sets the standard.

Imbewu, Alabama Anna and There She Goes all have winning claims.

Race 10 is a MR 80 handicap over 1200m and I ride Love Lies who won a good race last time and on that form could be right there again.

My first selection is Buck's Fizz who reverts to sprinting trips and I think this could be his forte.

Super Agra is another who is consistent and in good form so must be included into wider bets.

PLEASE NOTE

All racing results are now carried in the sports pages of The Citizen.

With Pleasure is another who ran very well in his latest start and again if he reproduces that he Rosaprima won exceptionally well last time and could definitely follow up while Terra Time is in great form and must be included into all bets, but I think we all have Bat Out Of Hell to beat.

She ran a lovely race last time after a good win, and everything points to her running a great race a strong race while Captain Lannister is in great form and must be respected.

Under Your Spell, although carrying top weight, is still the best weighted competitor and is the only Grade 1 winner in the field. It might not be easy for her, but the Sean Tarry yard is in top

TIPS 1 BLAZING KHAL 4 GELINO BELLO 2 BALLYGRIFINCOTTAGE

PREVIEW BLAZING KHAL was a convincing winner when pulling away from Gelino Bello in the Grade 2 Ballymore Novices' Hurdle here last month. The son of Kalanisi has to shoulder a penalty for that success but 2 Dailynole Norles induct reast induit. The Soft of Radius has to shoulder a periary for har solcess out that might not be enough to stop him, with this longer trip looking sure to suit. Ballyngrifincottage is an interesting contender making his Rules debut after establishing himself in the point-to-point ranks, while Barony Legends is also considered after a wide margin success at Lingfield, but this demands more as he steps up in class. PREVIEW The experience YORKSEA gained from running here on his domestic debut should stand him in good stead as he looks to build on that promising effort where he stayed on eye-catchingly to finish third. The extra varidage today can only aid his cause as he looks to fend off the challenge of Interne De Sivola, who shaped well behind a Dan Skelton-trained hotpot at Warwick, and Patient Dream, who was behind a subsequent winner at Wetherby last month. Of the newcomers, Titian must enter calculations for last year's winning connections, as well as Message Personnel for an owner that likes to have winners around here. PREVIEW Things didn't exactly go to plan for MY DROGO on chase debut here last month when falling two out in a two-horse race, and he has another small field to deal with here. He jumped well in the main on that occasion, though, and he can get his career back on track here ahead of lotter targets. It says enough that Jay Bee Why, who performed with credit on his chase debut at Exeter, has 47 lengths to make up with the selection from their meeting in the Mersey Novices' Hurdle in April. Torn And Frayed can pick up the pieces if each of the first two falter.

TIPS 2 MIDNIGHT SHADOW 12 FARINET 3 FUSIL RAFFLES

PREVIEW Midnight Shadow commands respect after his win in the Paddy Power Gold Cup last month, form which has subsequently been franked. However, a chance is taken on the unexposed FARINET, who progressed well over fances last season which included a success in a Listed handicap at Sandown. The six-year-old gelding could be well treated off his mark of 133 and his claims are further enhanced by the positive jockey booking of Rachael Blackmore. Fusil Raffles is considered after his fortunate Chartie Hall victory at Wetherby and he is likely to be suited by the return to this shorter trip, while cases can also be made for Cep-

FLAG BEARER stayed on well to finish behind that rival last time and could stake a claim too with the step-up in trip likely to suit. KZN raider TABEBUIA returns from a lengthy layoff but showed enough as a 2yo to warrant respect ahead of his Highweld debut. PREVIEW Good race. Grade 1 winner UNDER YOUR SPELL is unbeaten over this trip and slung in under the conditions, so hard to oppose. CAPTAIN LANNISTER may be better over slightly turther but will enjoy a hot pace to aim at and arrives in winning form, so could pose a threat. Both MASTER ARCHIE and BELLA CHICA are distance suited and likely to make their presence felt, as is lightly raced SHELDON who is dangerous under bottom weight.

PREVIEW Big field, many with chances. INDLAMU has not finished out of the first 3 in 11 starts and, while hard to win with recently, should make another bold bid. ESKIMO PIE, on the other hand, has found form of late, winning 3 of his last. He's gone up 14 points as a result but is racing at the top of his game and likely to give another competitive account. Fellow last-start winner BOLD JAZZ and lightly raced SILVER TYCOON, who is distance suited, could give check if at best. MARDI GRAS and APPROACH CONTROL are capable of staking claims as are NOBLE STRIKER and unexposed POWER RANGER. Tricky!

SEA; 10-1 WHORLY WHORLY, SPANISH BOY; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. PREVIEW Tricky. BOWIE was withdrawn from the Grand Heritage and should find his task in the con-solation an easier one racing off his last winning mark. It's been a long time between drinks for SPANISH BOY who finished 3rd in the Grand Heritage last year and has bumped one better in each of his last 2 starts, but he wouldn't be winning out of turn and should be competitive. Both CITY BY THE SEA and CAPTAIN HINDSIGHT arrive in good form and are likely to make their presence felt, which could also be said of consistent STORMY WINTER. Stable companion LOVE LIES returns from a short break and could earn some more money. BUCK'S FIZZ was a disappointment last time but could be better than that run and should not be leave him out of any exotic perm. SAMUEL SALT has won for this jockey so must be considered. NORTH PARADE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS 5 MOONLIGHT SPIRIT 11 ROXANYA 7 THE BIG JETAWAY PREVIEW The Big Jetaway was a long way behind the front two when third here last month but he could be better for that first run for Donald McCain, though ROXANYA is preferred at the weights. Stuart Craw-ford's mare was a decent third at Limerick when last seen, having looked a potential winner on her hurdling debut when falling two out. A close second in a bumper on a previous foray to these shores, she could be the one to side with. Fabuleux Du Clos ran respectably in bumpers last term and is interesting, while Moonlight Spirit was a classy performer on the Flat and has to be of interest on his debut for James Molfatt.

PREVIEW ROLLER WITCH to Induct in this race last year and is 3lb lower here, despite being raised 5lb for a good win on his reappearance at Hexham last month. Stuart Coltherd's gelding is taken to get the better of fellow last-time-out winner Just Call Me AI, who has won two of his last four over timber at his beloved Sedgefield, but has yet to register a win in seven outings over fences. Cellar Vie could be capable of a big run on his chasing debut at a track he is familiar with, while Millarville has some useful form over fences, though the head mean over fences time. that has all come over longer trips.

PREVIEW Gold Cup Bailty has to be of interest after finishing a good second at Ayr in March, but perhaps BEST TRITION could be the answer with a recent run under his belt. Olly Murphy's charge was well supported when second on his debut under Rules in late October and the form was given a boost when the third went close subsequently. Entitled to come on for the outing, he could prove a tough nut to crack. The other three all have heavy defeats to overcome, but perhaps The Real Whacker could be the pick on his first outing for Ann Duffield to fences on his reappearance at this track in October, winning with even more in hand than the margin would suggest having been eased late on. A 10lb rise looks to underestimate the performance he produced that day and the six-year-lod can prove too strong for course winner Whoshotthesheriff, who had excuses when upped in grade last time. Well Above Par pulled clear with the runner-up when winning here last month and cannot be the exercise. discounted.

TREVIEW A competitive affair and BASS ROCK puts forward a strong case, having built on a course win when performing with great credit up in grade at Haydock last month. Further improvement still looks possible for the five-year-old and he can hold the upper hand over the Irish raider Wowsham, who ran above expectations when taking fourth in a Grade 3 contest at Navan on his latest start. Teescomponents Lad found plenty off the bridle when scoring at Market Rasen last time and is also worth considering.

TIPS 1 TOMMIE BEAU 5 LOUGH DERG FARMER 2 THE COMPOSEUR

PREVIEW The progressive Tommie Beau didn't lose much in defeat when only narrowly failing to back up a chasing debt win at Fontwell last month but a further 3lb hike suggests the handicapper is getting the up-per hand. The same could be said about Lough Derg Farmer, who has been raised 5lb after scraping home in a gruelling 4m marathon at Hexham last time, so any value here may lie with THE COMPOSEUR. Jonjo O'Neil's charge is a better jumper than two falls in his last three starts suggests and looked sure to have played a part in the finish on both occasions, plus he is just 2lb higher than when scoring comfortably over 3m at Southwell in the summer

PREVIEW Probably not the strongest of bumpers with none of the newcomers jumping off the page, though any market move for either of Stuart Crawford's Northern Irish raiders, Brompton Park or Miss Pearl, would be interesting. Fonzerelli has to be considered after handling this track well when a runner-up in a similar event in October, but the form of ALL THE GLORY's recent third at Warwick received a boost when the winner bolted up under a penalty next time and this stiffer course should prove to his liking. Nell's Bells also merits some consideration after displaying flickers of promise first time out 11 months ago

PREVIEW Petwell is unbeaten in her last six, going up a total of 34lb as a consequence. She has defied every rise before, but is 5lb higher than when a narrow winner at Hereford last time and could be vulnerable to CUP OF COFFEE here. Sam Drinkwater's mare won well at Ludiow last month and the form has been boosted by the runner-up scoring since. She might be well treated off a mark of 114. Table Mountain was last seen in the Queen Alexandra at Royal Ascot and has some classy previous form to her name, while Laura Bul-lion was a fair third off this mark at Taunton last time and could improve for the refitting of cheekpieces.

Croagh Patrick also made a pleasing fencing debut when last sighted, finishing runner-up at Uttoxeter in October, and he must enter calculations. The returning Bignorm also warrants respect.

TIPS 5 HORIZON D'AINAY 10 BRIANNA ROSE 8 ORDER OF ST JOHN

PREVIEW HORIZON D'AINAY took a big step forward from a modest debut bumper effort when second on his hurdling debut at Market Rasen last month and Dan Skelton's charge could go one better in this. Order Of St John ran a decent race to be third at Ludlow last time and could build on that, though a bigger danger appears to be Brianna Rose, who showed up well in a small field on her hurdling bow at Catterick last time.

TIPS 6 HOB HOUSE 1 KAYF HERNANDO 3 SAYADAM

PREVIEW Savadam sets the standard on form shown over hurdles at this point and, despite failing to fully live up to expectations on his return at Utoxeter last month, a bold bid looks likely. However, he may have his work cut out trying to match the Nicky Henderson-trained HOB HOUSE, who makes his hurdling debut after landing a bumper at this track on his sole career outing in March. Kayf Hennando faced a tough task at Cheltroberg the time and in context to produce our outwing to concern the output to the sole of the After landing a burner at this track of the base services of the base of the calmer waters.

TIPS 4 FOILLAN 2 BLOW BY BLOW 1 GROOVEUR

PREVIEW FOILLAN took a step forward when winning with plenty in hand on his handicap debut at Hexham last time and a 7lb rise may not be enough to stop him continuing his progression. Grooveur was last seen producing an improved performance when landing a novice event at Ludlow in March and the five-year-old can make a bold bid now switching to handicaps, while Blow By Blow performed well on his reappearance at Ayr last month and may also get involved.
