Feast on Smorgasbord

IMPROVEMENT: PETER RUNNER EXPECTED TO BENEFIT FROM GELDING

» Consistent Spanish Boy looks the main threat.

Jack Milner

Trainer Paul Peter has always felt Smorgasbord would be a top-class performer and after his debut win Peter's assertion looked spot on.

In his next start he gave away ground at the start and still managed to fly up for second spot to finish a one-length second behind Sheela in the Grade 2 SA Nursery over 1160m at Turffontein.

He then went off as the 1-4 favourite to win the Highveld Winter Juvenile Stakes (Non-Black Type) over 1400m at Turffontein but this time found Rain In Holland too good.

Although he has not yet run a bad race and continued to place in his next two starts, it appeared the gilt had peeled off his reputation.

It must have been a tough decision to make, but after his well-beaten fourth place in the Grade 3 Graham Beck Stakes behind top filly Desert Miracle, Smorgasbord was gelded.

There is no question this three-year-old son of Twice Over has talent and hopefully he will now be able to keep his mind on the job of racing.

He makes his comeback at the Vaal tomorrow and will line up in Race 7, a MR 96 Handicap over 1200m.

His last race was two months back and hopefully he will not be need of the run because if Smorgasbord gets his mojo back, there are plenty of feature races coming up in which he can compete.

He was fitted with blinkers in his last start but they have been removed for this race.

Gavin Lerena takes the ride for the first time.

The main threat is likely to come from Spanish Boy who has notched up three successive seconds - over 1000m, 1200m and 1475m - in his last three races.

Unlike Smorgasbord, trainer Lucky Houdalakis has decided to fit a set of blinkers to Spanish Boy for this run in the hope it will get a little extra out of the five-year-old Silvano gelding. He will get 5kg from Smorgasbord and he once again has the services of jockey Muzi Yeni, who no doubt would love to get his mount's nose down where it matters most after the three frustrating runner-up spots.

GELDED. Smorgasbord could be ready to show his true potential when he lines up in Race 7 at the Vaal tomorrow. Picture: JC Photographics

Shield to defend dirt record

Luke Middlebrook

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin today for an eight-race all-dirt programme under lights.

The Class 1 Fo Tan Handicap over 1650m is the highest-rated race on the card, which sees trainer Frankie Lor's dirt specialist, KINGS SHIELD, return to his pet track and distance.

KINGS SHIELD'S Hong Kong all-weather record of four wins and a second placing from 10 starts stands him out as one of the best dirt horses in the jurisdiction, so you can safely put the pen through his last-start 12th placing on the turf (21 starts for two third placings on the grass) when beaten 17.25 lengths.

Two starts ago, KINGS SHIELD put paid to his rivals with a soft 2.50-length victory at this track and distance, where his record now stands at a 50%-win strike rate. Having trialled very well since his last run, he looks primed to bounce back.

Trainer John Size's untapped five-year-old, SILVER EXPRESS, brings the X-factor to the race after a soft win over 1600m on turf 31 days ago. Now a two-time winner from seven locally, the grey appears to have more to come and just needs to handle the dirt the first time to be playing a part in the finish.

Elsewhere, talented four-year-old EVERYONE'S VICTORY can get back to his winning ways in the Class 4 Sha Tin Wai Handicap (1200m) coming up in Race 6.

EVERYONE'S VICTORY is one win and four placings from 10 starts so far but seems to be on an upwards trajectory into his second preparation of racing.

After finishing 2.50 lengths into second place in his second-up run in late October, the Deep Field gelding put it all together to break his duck third-up, letting down powerfully to draw clear by a facile 2.25 lengths.

Domeyer to master matters in Cape

Jack Milner

Aldo Domeyer may only have five rides on today's Kenilworth card but he has a wonderful opportunity to come away with a host of winners.

He has good winning chances on Charlie Squadron in Race 2,

Arctic Drift in Race 4 and Ma Black in Race 8 but the best of his rides comes up Race 3 where he is aboard Thunder Master for trainer Candice Bass-Robinson.

This three-year-old son of Master Of My Fate has run two excellent successive races after having been gelded and looks ideally placed to notch up his first victory when he runs in this Maiden Plate over 2000m.

Two runs back he produced the fastest finish over 1600m to end up a 1.25-length third behind Blizzard, and last time, racing over 1800m, he was just touched off close home by Over To You.

He finished 3.80 lengths clear of Sunday Island who had to overcome a wide draw and did not have the clearest of passage in the 14-horse field, but it is questionable whether he will be able to make up that much ground on Bass-Robinson's charge this time.

Sunday Island is trained by Andre Nel and will be ridden by Grant van Niekerk. The pair look good best for Exactas and Swingers.

However, jockey Richard Fourie deserts that runner to partner well-related, likely improver IRISH WILDFLOWER who made a pleasing course-and-distance debut and will be wiser to the task. ISLAND TREASURE caught the eye on debut when flashing up late over 1000m and the step up in trip with that run under the belt makes her the one to beat. PANZANELLA and others with experience could get into the picture. Newcomers TANGO MIST and WAYWARD GIRL warrant respect.

PREVIEW ■ RAINING AGAIN was improving prior to a rest, during which he was gelded, and is open to further progress on his return. CHARLIE SQUADRON has been costly to follow but has improved with blinkers fitted and could enjoy cutting back in trip, so rates the one to beat. Well-bred BIRDIE AND BOGIE made good improvement from his first to second run, albeit in a work riders maiden, and should take another step forward to pose a threat. FOREVER BILL gave a better account over track and trip when last seen and should have a role to play with a repeat of that effort. Tricky.

PREVIEW ■ THUNDER MASTER has improved going ground and should continue to do so stepping up to this trip for the first time. SUNDAY ISLAND caught the eye behind that rival last time when drawn widest of all and could pose more of a threat from an inside gate. GLOBAL FORESTS disappointed in his latest but has claims on the form of his penultimate start. DOUBLE DUET and CHAMPAGNESOCIALIST can make their presence felt too.

PREVIEW ■ Small but competitive lineup. ARCTIC DRIFT bounced back to form in a strong race last time when he got going late over a shorter trip and, on that evidence in this grade over this distance, should be hard to beat. MOUNT ANDERSON and GAINSFORD are closely matched on earlier form but the latter should have the edge on these revised weight terms. HIS CHOICE is unexposed over this distance and best kept outside at his first attempt over the trip.

PREVIEW ■ Tricky. INFINITE PEACE caught the eye in a stronger race on handicap debut, staying on well over a shorter trip, so is likely to have more to offer reverting to this distance. STORM DICTATOR was another to draw attention when doing his best work late in a stronger sprint. He should, on pedigree and that evidence, enjoy the extra 200m so could challenge. SOLAR POWER may have just won a maiden but is progressive and should improve. TICKET TO RIDE, off his current mark, and SILENT TRIGGER (who may have needed his last start after gelding) have claims.

PREVIEW ■ Wide open. BALTIMORE JACK was rewarded for consistency when winning a similar contest over track and trip last time. He is likely to feature prominently once more despite a 4-point hike but won't have things his own way with speedy MASKED VIGILANTE in the lineup. The latter may enjoy a return to this trip given his running style and should be competitive under top weight. Veteran POWER GRID was outclassed in a 1100m feature last time but should fare better reverting to this trip and grade. WORDSWORTH and PERSISTANCE are holding form and could get into the picture.

PREVIEW ■ Intriguing sprint handicap for the girls. Regally bred STIPELIK impressed on debut over track and trip. She lost nothing in defeat when tried over further subsequently and could be worth following reverting to this distance. TWILIGHT HOUR scored a promising first-start win over this course and distance too, so is also best kept outside until beaten. GREEN LIGHT GAL and LOUIS' DIAMOND are consistent and in good form and likely to make their presence felt in an open contest. DAD'S CATCH and WINDSOR BEAT aren't without a chance while lightly raced ATHALIA could surprise off a reduced rating.

PREVIEW ■ Another head-scratcher fillies and mares sprint handicap. MOUNIA tired over further in a sales race on her reappearance in the province. Having registered her only career win over track and trip, she may fare better after freshening up. YOUNG LOVE improved markedly from her debut to open her account at the second attempt and will make further progress, so should be competitive. MA BLACK disappointed last time over 1000m but could reaffirm stepping up to this trip. Stablemate NIPPY WINTER ran well on handicap debut and should do so again. APOLLO MOON and FEARLESS TRIP have claims.

FORECAST BETTING 8-10 TRACY'S PRINCESS; 7-2 ARILENA; 7-1 SABRINA FAIRCHILD; 10-1 LOVE BITE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW Tricky first. Paul Peter has three 'unknown' fillies. TRACEY'S PRINCESS, who was backed in both starts but ran wide, SABRINA FAIRCHILD, who returns with blinkers off following a long lay-off after bleeding, and first-timer MYCHANCETODREAM. Watch the betting. LOVE BITE and FROSTED ICE are looking to earn. Respect money for newcomers ARILENA and SPIRIT OF ST LOUIS.

FORECAST BETTING 2-1 GENERAL HANCOCK; 7-2 PORTRAYAL, SOWETO SPINA; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW GENERAL HANCOCK has improved in blinkers and after 2 seconds could go one better. He has two stable companions, PORTRAYAL, who wasn't far behind the former sporting blinkers and should get close, as well as SOWETO SPINA who has obvious ability and comes off a rest after disappointing. TRUST THE FIRE and FORGOTTEN TIME could take home minor money. Watch newcomers DROGHERE and SARDO NUMSPA.

FORECAST BETTING 7-2 BROADWAY, CAPTAIN OF GRIT, PUTTING GREEN; 5-1 DUKE OF RAIN; 10-1 ASTROCYTE, PUTTING; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW PUTTING GREEN found support in both her starts but found problems too. She comes off a rest sporting blinkers and could get her act together. CAPTAIN OF GRIT should be at peak fitness and should make a race of it. BROADWAY and DUKE OF RAIN have been threatening and both could get into the action. ASTROCYTE, stablemate PUTTING, and SUGAR BEACH - the last two both rested and gelded - are looking to improve.

PREVIEW This is not a strong field and ARABIAN SKY looks to have most scope for improvement. The one to beat, COUNTRY FLAME, KISS TO DREAM and WATCHING CLOSELY are not going to Hollywood but could place. GIFT OF GIVING (blinkers on) and UBIQUITAS are looking to improve. Debutante ALL THE ROSES doesn't have to be too good to feature.

FORECAST BETTING 5-2 SOUTHERN SONG; 4-1 LADY AMHERST, OPERA GLASS; 7-1 SUPREME DANCE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW Great race - with four very honest performers. On weight turnaround SOUTHERN SONG, with a 4kg apprentice allowance, could have the upper hand, however, SUPREME DANCE, LADY AMHERST and OPERA GLASS won't go down without a fight. On top of this THE KOP is over his perfect distance while KAY TEE PERRY is showing a form return. RAISEAHALLELUJAH, TIME SPIRIT and MADABOUT FASHION could also get into the action.

PREVIEW FUNKY MUSIC is running close-up, however, if he covered until late he will finish off strongly. EURO CENT is cherry ripe and could make up the almost two lengths on the former. Stable companions MOYA WA LALIGA (scope for improvement) and INTO THE FUTURE (struggling for correct distance) could get into the mix. IN THE GAME is having his peak run and could feature. DANCING DORA claims 4kg which could help.

PREVIEW SMORGASBORD returns as a gelding after a rest and should get off to a fresh start. SPANISH BOY has finished runner-up in all three runs after a rest and could extend that record. MAY QUEEN and ALL OF ME meet up before this and either could get into the Trifecta - check the form. BATTLEOFTRAFALGAR and FAST LOVE could get into the frame.

PREVIEW MATHIS races fresh from a facile debut victory. He beat nothing of note but could follow up in a field of this nature. The battle for minor money is wide open. JET CAT has come well and looking for a hat-trick. If holds form should hold ICE EATER, WRITTEN IN STONE, BUCK'S FIZZ, MONEY FIGHTER, SICILIAN TIGER and RAISETHEREDLANTERN. PREVIEW ■ CHARITY BALL has been knocking and the addition of blinkers may prove a shrewd move. However, jockey Richard Fourie deserts that runner to partner well-related, likely improver IRISH WILDFLOWER who made a pleasing course-and-distance debut and will be wiser to the task. ISLAND TREASURE caught the eye on debut when flashing up late over 1000m and the step up in trip with that run under the belt makes her the one to beat. PANZANELLA and others with experience could get into the picture. Newcomers TANGO MIST and WAYWARD GIRL warrant respect.

PREVIEW ■ RAINING AGAIN was improving prior to a rest, during which he was gelded, and is open to further progress on his return. CHARLIE SQUADRON has been costly to follow but has improved with blinkers fitted and could enjoy cutting back in trip, so rates the one to beat. Well-bred BIRDIE AND BOGIE made good improvement from his first to second run, albeit in a work riders maiden, and should take another step forward to pose a threat. FOREVER BILL gave a better account over track and trip when last seen and should have a role to play with a repeat of that effort. Tricky.

PREVIEW ■ THUNDER MASTER has improved going ground and should continue to do so stepping up to this trip for the first time. SUNDAY ISLAND caught the eye behind that rival last time when drawn widest of all and could pose more of a threat from an inside gate. GLOBAL FORESTS disappointed in his latest but has claims on the form of his penultimate start. DOUBLE DUET and CHAMPAGNESOCIALIST can make their presence felt too.

PREVIEW ■ Small but competitive lineup. ARCTIC DRIFT bounced back to form in a strong race last time when he got going late over a shorter trip and, on that evidence in this grade over this distance, should be hard to beat. MOUNT ANDERSON and GAINSFORD are closely matched on earlier form but the latter should have the edge on these revised weight terms. HIS CHOICE is unexposed over this distance and best kept outside at his first attempt over the trip.

PREVIEW ■ Tricky. INFINITE PEACE caught the eye in a stronger race on handicap debut, staying on well over a shorter trip, so is likely to have more to offer reverting to this distance. STORM DICTATOR was another to draw attention when doing his best work late in a stronger sprint. He should, on pedigree and that evidence, enjoy the extra 200m so could challenge. SOLAR POWER may have just won a maiden but is progressive and should improve. TICKET TO RIDE, off his current mark, and SILENT TRIGGER (who may have needed his last start after gelding) have claims.

PREVIEW ■ Wide open. BALTIMORE JACK was rewarded for consistency when winning a similar contest over track and trip last time. He is likely to feature prominently once more despite a 4-point hike but won't have things his own way with speedy MASKED VIGILANTE in the lineup. The latter may enjoy a return to this trip given his running style and should be competitive under top weight. Veteran POWER GRID was outclassed in a 1100m feature last time but should fare better reverting to this trip and grade. WORDSWORTH and PERSISTANCE are holding form and could get into the picture.

PREVIEW ■ Intriguing sprint handicap for the girls. Regally bred STIPELIK impressed on debut over track and trip. She lost nothing in defeat when tried over further subsequently and could be worth following reverting to this distance. TWILIGHT HOUR scored a promising first-start win over this course and distance too, so is also best kept outside until beaten. GREEN LIGHT GAL and LOUIS' DIAMOND are consistent and in good form and likely to make their presence felt in an open contest. DAD'S CATCH and WINDSOR BEAT aren't without a chance while lightly raced ATHALIA could surprise off a reduced rating.

Having registered her only career win over track and trip, she may fare better after freshening up. YOUNG LOVE improved markedly from her debut to open her account at the second attempt and will make further progress, so should be competitive.
