

Cold fact of weight reversal

DEBATE: WHAT EXTENT DO WEIGHT TURNAROUNDS MATTER IN SPRINTS

→ Bella Chica has benefit of 4kg claimer up.

Jack Milner

here are opposing views expressed about the difference a turnover of weights makes in a sprint. Some people believe it to be the same as a race run over a middle distance while others feel the shorter trip nullifies much of the turnaround.

That debate will come under a microscope in Race 6 at the Vaal today, a MR 93 Handicap for fillies and mares over 1000m.

Bella Chica and Cold Fact last met on 3 August over this track and trip. That race was won by Ashley Fortune-trained Bella Chica, who beat Cold Fact by 2.50 lengths.

When they meet this time, Paul Peter's charge will be 3kg better off and that means there should be little between the pair.

But we can add in another factor. The only reason the gap is so close is because Fortune has engaged 4kg claiming apprentice Kaidan Brewer to ride Bella Chica. According to the "rules of the game" that allowance is given to compensate apprentices for their lack of experience, and in some cases, any deficiency in competence.

Former champion jockey Piere Strydom argues that 4kg is 4kg and it makes a massive difference, especially in the finish.

So, will the allowance compensate Brewer to such a degree that it will raise his level to match somebody of the proficiency and experience of Gavin Lerena, who will be riding Cold Fact?

Only the race will answer that, but Cold Fact is extremely fast, and Brewer might find it tough to get past Lerena in a tight finish.

Peter's charge last ran on the Polytrack at Greyville but performed badly. She was examined afterwards and nothing obvious was detected. It just could have been the surface, or maybe she did not travel all that well.

But she's better than that and deserves another chance.

WEIGHTS. Cold Fact should go close in Race 6 at the Vaal today as she is favoured by a weight turnaround. Picture: JC Photographics Bella Chica won four in a row before contesting the Listed Gardenia Handicap over 1000m at Turffontein in which she finished sixth, beaten 3.75 lengths by Hello Winter Hello.

She will appreciate the drop in Other runners to consider are Muleta and Captain's Run. Muleta had a decent comeback run from a break when finishing a 0.80-length second behind Before The Dawn. Muzi Yeni takes the ride.

Captain's Run is in good form and had excuses last time when beaten four lengths by Lucy English. She does tend to make a respiratory noise in running and that is a concern.

Progressive Remorse looks best in Listed Entisar

Ed Marnane

The season cranks up a gear with the running of the Entisar, the opening Listed race of the campaign, at Meydan today.

First run in 2014, the 2000m contest on dirt has attracted a field of eight, with Saltarin Dubai, runner-up in the last two renewals, back for a fourth crack for trainer Bhupat Seemar.

Winner of the Jebel Ali Stakes (Listed), the highlight of his campaign last season, he has to overcome a lengthy absence and having turned nine in August, he makes little appeal in the hands of Richard Mullen.

for Seemar at Zabeel Stables, has elected to ride the exciting and progressive Remorse. By Dubawi, he made a winning comeback in a 1600m handicap at Jebel Ali last month, quickening readily to get the better of Tenbury Wells, the pair pulling a long clear of First Winter.

In February, Remorse impressed on his sole appearance on Meydan's main track, winning a 2000m handicap in dominant fashion, a performance that was backed up by a quick time. He is fancied to handle the step-up in grade and will take plenty of stopping.

The RRR Racing owned Quip, formerly trained by Satish Seemar represents last year's winning trainer, Salem bin Ghadayer.

The son of Distorted Humor, the highest rated horse in the field with a mark of 109, has largely struggled since arriving in the UAE and unless a switch to a new yard sparks a revival, he's hard to fancy.

Doug Watson has a fantastic record in the Entisar, winning four of the eight renewals, the most recent with Cosmo Charlie three years ago.

The 2019 UAE Derby winner Plus Que Parfait has his first start for Watson and has the services of Pat Dobbs. Formerly trained by Brendan Walsh in the USA, he is winless since his shock victory in the final leg of the Triple Crown at

Returning after a seven-month absence, he's entitled to better for the race and is best watched.

In-form Ray Dawson rides Aydon Castle for his main employer, Ahmad bin Harmash. The horse ended last season by posting a career-best in the Abu Dhabi Championship, a Group 3 over 22000m on turf, when third behind Irish Freedom.

Previously Aydon Castle ran with credit on his dirt debut at Meydan, finishing less than nine lengths behind Remorse.

He is weighted to get closer to the winner with a 4.5 kg pull at the weights. From a yard going well, Aydon Castle shouldn't be
