RECORD: DE KOCK SEEKING FOURTH WIN IN G1 CAPE FILLIES GUINEAS

»→ Pace a concern in Green Point Stakes

Jack Milner

esert Miracle is already being compared to "The Galloping Goldmine", Empress Club, as she has been a runaway winner of all her races this season.

However, she will face her sternest test so far when she lines up in the Grade 1 World Sports Betting Cape Fillies Guineas over 1600m at Kenilworth tomorrow.

It is apparent no three-yearold on the Highveld can live with Desert Miracle and now she needs to prove she can beat the best in the Western Cape. This time she has to do the travelling and will race for the first time on a left-handed turn.

Trainer Mike de Kock knows what it takes to win this race, having first taken top honours in 2003 with Emerald Beauty and then again with Rumya in 2012 and Majmu in 2014.

Desert Miracle has run six times, and after two unlucky seconds over 1160m at Turffontein, she went on to win her next four with consummate ease.

This beautifully bred daughter of Dynasty does look special, and it come as no surprise she has been priced up at 4-10.

Gavin Lerena knows her well and he is back in the irons on this occasion. They will jump from No 6 draw.

The home challenge is headed up by Candice Bass-Robinsontrained Amanzimtoti, winner of the Grade 2 Western Cape Fillies Championship. She has won three of her five starts and finished runner-up in the other two,

STAR FILLY. Desert Miracle is strongly fancied to make a winning debut in the Western Cape tomorrow when she runs in the Grade 1 Cape Fillies Guineas over 1600m at Kenilworth. Picture: JC Photographics but she will have to jump from barrier No 12 which means jockey Aldo Domeyer will already start at a disadvantage.

However, racing is now back on the Summer Course and with it's longer run-in, should make life easier for jockeys who need to come from off the pace.

Another highlight on the card is the Grade 2 Green Point Stakes over 1600m, a traditional warmup for the Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate over the same course and distance. after a four-month absence since winning the Grade 1 Champions Cup over 1800m at Greyville.

Only five runners are carded to go to post, but they all have winning chances.

The others are consistent toplevel performer Rainbow Bridge who impressed in a recent racecourse gallop, Vaughan Marshalltrained Linebacker and Seeking The Stars, and highly regarded Captain Fontane, who takes a jump in class and tries this distance for the first time. But he is lightly raced and is likely to be a lot better than his merit rating suggests. This race has "Cape Crawl" written all over it as only Seeking The Stars is an obvious front runner.

Anton Marcus is aboard so the other jockeys will have to keep him firmly in their sights or else he will ride them to sleep.

One should put all five runners in one's Pick 6 but Rainbow Bridge has to be the sentimental choice to pick up another Graded

Opulent bet at Fairview

Jack Milner

Trainer Alan Greeff and jockey Greg Cheyne have been in excellent form of last and they are expected to add to their winning tally at Fairview today where racing takes place on the Polytrack.

There best could come up as early in Race 2, a Maiden Plate for fillies and mares over 1200m, where they team up with a newcomer to the stable, Opulence.

This three-year-old Duke Of Marmalade filly comes across from Candice Bass-Robinson for whom she has raced four times. After two disappointing runs blinkers were fitted and Opulent started to show improvement. In her last start, over 1600m at Kenilworth, she went down a short head to Costa Smeralda. Two winners from six runner have come out of that form line so it is quite clear a repeat of that performance will make her very hard to beat.

She does drop to 1200m and will try the Polytrack for the first time, but Greeff is quite astute when making those changes and does so with great success. In any case, she does have the strongest form line in the field.

Cheyne and Greeff look very likely to notch up a quick double with Celtillus in Race 3.

This Vercingetorix gelding has done well since joining the Greeff yard and loves this Polytrack surface.

Surprisingly, the five-year-old has been carded to race in blinkers this time but if that does not trouble him, coupled with the fact he will jump from the stall No 1, should see him have the run of the Jet Dark, winner of the Queen's Plate last season, is on track to defend his crown and returns race victory.

The Grade 2 Southern Cross Stakes over 1000m for fillies and mares looks highly competitive as does the Grade 3 Cape Summer Stayers Handicap over 2500m. race.

Another trainer having a very good year is Gavin Smith and he could win Race 7 with his recent recruit Senescence.

This five-year-old mare was not disgraced when third on her local debut and she is likely to be smarter this time.

PREVIEW A weak race so any result is possible. CASHING IN Nas been a disappointment of late but is quite capable of winning a race like this. The same can be said of CRYSTAL CITY who looked likely to win a race earlier in his career but han but the submit way. PREVIEW MAGIC TO THE FORE was probably just in need of her local debut. She was doing her best work at the finish that day so should have no problem with the course and distance. OPULENCE was not disgraced at Kenilworth last time. Usually that form is strong enough to win at this centre but she has changed train-ers since then and tries the Polytrack this time. LIFE IN MARS is holding his form nicely and should contest the finish yet again. KINGSTON ROCK has been a disapointment this season but is clearly capable of doing better. PREVIEW A tough race to find the winner and we may have to go very wide to survive all the exotics. DALEEL did not quicken last time out and is clearly a lot better than that run would suggest. He smashed Son Of Zeus before that and that rival has won twice since. The betting will be the best guide on his chances. DOP-PIO ORO seems to like the Polytrack and has some fair recent form. FRESH FROM THE US is clearly better than his last run and has a winning chance. LION KING is unreliable but is also not out of it but is more likely to place than win.

PREVIEW CELTILLUS has done trainer Alan Greeff proud and is at his very best on the Polytrack. Surprisingly blinkers have now been reached for. This course and distance suits and he should be hard to beat from pole position. JEAN'S MAN, like many other Juan Nel-trained runners, was well backed when winning last time out. This is a tougher task. VAR'S BOY is very consistent and should be right there at the finish once again. UNDISCLOSED has won three of his last four starts and deserves some respect as well. TALIA AL GHUL has some fair recent form but takes on a tough field.

Her traine should know more about her so she she should be smarter this time and a deserved win could be on the cards for her connections. Grimaldi looks set to make winning return

WEIGHT: PETER'S CHARGE TO BENEFIT FROM A 4KG APPRENTICE CLAIM

»> Call Me Master stands out as the main threat.

Jack Milner

rimaldi has had a threemonth break and if anywhere close to his best will take some beating in Race 7 at Turffontein tomorrow.

The Paul Peter-trained runner lines up in a merit rated 72 Handicap over 2000m on the Standside track and his trainer could not have unearthed a better race for his charge to make his comeback.

Grimaldi could not come from better stock. His sire, Dynasty, was the best racehorse of his era in the country with victories in a number of the country's most prominent races. Sadly, an injury forced him into early retirement.

The same could be said of his dam. Europa Point was sired in Ireland and was trained by Mike de Kock in South Africa. As she was six months younger than her local rivals De Kock showed a lot of patience with her and allowed her time to develop by racing her through the divisions.

When she finally matured Europa Point started to race against and beat the best. She raced 13 times for nine wins and four places, ending her career with two Grade 1 wins - over 1600m and 2000m respectively. Grimaldi had his issues as a youngster and while not in the same league of his illustrious parents he is more than capable. Like his mother, he took a while to mature but in his 11 starts, he has a record of two wins and seven places.

Saturday's race is not at all strong, but he has been allocated a great leveller of 62kg. Fortunately, Peter has engaged a competent 4kg claiming apprentice in Kaidan Brewer and that will make him highly competitive.

The main threat is likely to come from Call Me Master. While he is currently in good form the Robbie Sagetrained runner is already five years old and has only notched up one win. However, he has been lightly raced and is another who has only raced 11 times.

Tab

He does have a top a jockey in Muzi Yeni up and he will know how to deal with any nerves the young apprentice might have.

Superb first entries for Cape Met

The first entries for this season's Cape Town Met closed on Wednesday and just 19 horses were nominated for this Grade 1 race over 2000m at Kenilworth on Saturday 29 January.

But it is as good a 19-horse field that can be assembled!

Kommetdieding, Malmoos and War Of Athena. we potently have one of the best fields ever amassed for this R2 million race.

Kingdom come for Nicholls

London - Brave Kingdom can make it two from two for Paul Nicholls as he takes a marked step up in class in the Ballymore Winter Novices' Hurdle at Sandown today.

The five-year-old only joined the champion trainer this season having started out his career with Harry Whittington, winning a bumper in impressive style at Fontwell back in February on his only run for the latter.

Brave Kingdom transferred to Nicholls' care over the summer after having wind surgery in July, and he looked every bit as promising a prospect in winning a Chepstow maiden hurdle by 9.50 lengths at the start of November.

He made all that day and was certainly far from all out in victory, suggesting there is plenty still to come.

Brave Kingdom's future appears to lie over fences, but this Grade 2 heat looks a perfect stepping stone.

Desque De L'Isle can enhance his already impressive statistics of three wins in his last five outings by landing the Betfair Exchange Handicap Chase. Venetia Williams' runner struck twice at Lingfield last year before losing his way a bit in two subsequent starts.

Another to have had a summer wind surgery, the eight-year-old kicked off the season with victory at Ffos Las at the beginning of November, triumphing by 1.50 lengths but looking fair value for the distance.

The handicapper was clearly of a similar view as Desque De L'Isle is now on a 4kg higher mark, which puts him on a career high of 120 - although it still does not look insurmountable for this lightly raced individual.

Stoner's Choice can land the Pertemps Network Handicap Hurdle after finishing third in another qualifier at Kempton on his reappearance.

Peter looks to have some good raiders at Scottsville

Jack Milner

After a break in order to scarify the Scottsville track, racing will return to the Maritzburg track on Sunday.

This, of course, gives a full test to the jockeys as the Scottsville straight always holds a number of surprises and after a break the riders will have to find the best going when racing up the straight.

Highveld trainer Paul Peter four to the track and he could come away with some winners on the card. He saddles Miss Cool in Race 1 a Maiden Juvenile Plate over 800m. Although she will be taking on the colts, she has the advantage of already having had a race in which she finished a 3.25-length fifth behind stablemate Fennec Fox.

has brought a raiding party of

With Warren Kennedy up, she should get the yard of to a winning start.

He could be back in the winner's enclosure in Race 4, a Maiden Plate over 1500m, with Displace Time, also with Kennedy up. While a track debut at Scottsville is seldom easy, Displace Time does not look to be meeting a strong field and is drawn in barrier No 6.

Main danger Admiral Birnham was fourth in a qualified maiden last time so has to raise his game and he has taken his time in learning what it is all about, so switching back to Scottsville could be another hurdle as his previous race at the course was a shocker.

All The Time contests Race 3, a Maiden Plate over 1200m, and Yogas Govender's charge appeals as the best bets on the day as he has excellent form and has an inside gate, which traditionally has the faster going.

All The Time was expected to win after a good second at this venue but found one better (by a nose) in Tuk Tuk, a highly regarded runner from a top yard, at Greyville last time. He was trying the turn for the first time while the winner had the necessary experience. All The Time is now meeting a field low on experience at Scottsville, where he has run well previously, so should prove hard to catch.

Global Vision has Highveld form and could be dangerous, but he has not raced since May, is drawn toward the outside and new trainer Mike Miller made the comment that he is working well but will probably need slightly further.

Isst form and returns from a rest. The latter has maintained his consistency since but is closely matched with BAYBERRY and CRIMSON KING who are distance suited, in good form and likely to be competitive on these terms. ANSE LAZIO and BLACK KNAP are also distance suited and capable of better than their efforts in the Set-titers Trophy, so must be respected. CATACHAFALLINGSTAR stays well and has rediscovered her form without the blinkers and could surprise. So too could SALVATOR MUNDI who is unexposed over this trip.

FOREAST BETTING 1-1 DESERT MIRACLE; 5-1 AMANZIMTOTI; 8-1 MARIGOLD HOTEL; 10-1 CHAN-SONETTE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW DESERT MIRACLE has been imperious in winning twice from as many starts this term and is likely to prove even better going this trip for the first time, so is hard to oppose. Well-bred AMANZIMTOTI has also impressed as a 3yo, winning her trial/prep in the manner of a smart sort - will pose a threat. CHANSON-ETTE stayed on well to finish that rival last time, while MARIA QUEROL ought to have needed that outing - both are capable of making their presence felt. MERCURY HISING ran on well from the tail that day and should be respected. DANCETILDAYLIGHT can get into the picture too going this trip.

CAPITANA was returning from a rest when giving weight and a beating to KEEP THE LIGHTS ON recently and should confirm. PHIL'S DANCER finished 4th and may have needed that run, so should pose more of a threat on better terms. IRIS is closely matched with those rivals and at best over this trip, so capable of making her presence felt. Grade 1 winner VERNICHEY is capable and best treated by conditions of the race. She'll strip fitter for a local introduction and likely to have a say. KITTY CAT CHAT and MARYAH are unexposed but could stake a claim. SWEET FUTURE isn't without a chance either.

PREVEW Small but quality line-up. RAINBOW BRIDGE and JET DARK have a score to settle but are likely to be in need of the outing after long layoffs and ahead of bigger targets this campaign. LINEBACKER falls into that category too but has performed well first-up and has not finished out of the first two. SEEKING THE STARS won a Grade 3 from the front on his comeback and will ensure an honest tempo - he could get away. CAPTAIN FONTANE will be tested at this level but is no forlorn hope. Must see!

FORECAST BETTING 1-1 RIO QUERARI; 5-2 REAL GONE KID; 7-1 KASIMIR; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS

PREVIEW IRIO QUERARI sets a lofty standard and if anywhere near his best after a well-deserved rest, will take a power of beating. REAL GONE KID has won 3 of 4 starts this year and dominated his rivals returning from a break over1000m last time. He could well be better than rated and is likely to expose any chinks in the champion's armour. KASIMIR is no longer the force of old but remains capable of being competitive on these terms. Consistent BARZALONA can take home a cheque too.

PREVIEW Good maiden. BON BOYAGE was returning from a rest and gelding when 2nd over this track and trip last time. He ought to have tightened up since so is taken to better that result. TCHAIKOVSKY has been getting closer with every start. He too was 2nd over course and distance when last seen, so could pose a threat. SURJAY has shown promise in each of his 3 starts and over-raced over further last time, so should enjoy cutting back in distance and could fight 1 out.  PREVIEW
 First of the 'baby' races in KwaZulu-Natal and as always will be exciting to see how they per-form. Trainer Paul Peter brings down MISS COOL whose one run on the Highveld could give her the advantage. It was a fair debut and she should improve. However, there is positive trainer talk on a few, including SILVER DUCAT who is a 'What A Winter colt and should be quick. Trainer Mike Miller is brilliant with juveniles and sends out five. Anton Marcus has been booked to ride PARIS PIKE who has plenty speed in his pedigree - he could also attract strong betting support.

PREVIEW VATA proved costly to follow last time but may not have liked switching to the Polytrack after showing up well on the turf. She can make amends. MY ELOUISE came in for solid betting support on debut and ran a forward race to finish third. She had MAGICAL ODYSSEY behind her and that filly has come out to finish ahead of YATA, improving nicely. Watch out for WINTER JOURNEY who went a trip too far last time. She wasn't doing badly prior and could enjoy being back in a sprint.  PREVIEW LET'S TWIST AGAIN impressed on local debut and the well-bred son of Silvano is tried in a Strong Conditional Graduation. He should keep improving but he meets good sorts with experience at the venue. SIR MICHAEL is well tried and has run some very good races. He could finally get his reward. It could get close between HASTA MANANA and PUPPLE FLAME. HASTA MANANA won the Model Man Mile in style but is 3kg worse off with PUPPLE FLAME who finished 1.60 lengths behind him. RODRIGUEZ and TARANTINO are no slouches either and should be right there.

GEORGE: 10-1 TWICETHEQUALITY; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. PREVIEW Nice race. LA QUINTA showed form good enough to earn a high rating in the Western Cape. She has not disgraced herself in features where the distance may not have been ideal. She needed her poly de-but and is expected to improve. KEEP ON DANCING has been in amazing form, winning six out of seven before needing her last. She should come on in leaps and bounds but may find this a bit short. FORECAST BETTING 41 RIVERSTOWN;5-1 SOLID GOLD;6-1 SOCRATES, PRICELESS RULER; 10-1 AQUA BOLT; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW SOLID GOLD can follow up on his win after a rest. He is best weighted and having shown his well-being should be hard to catch again. Highveld raider RIVERSTOWN does look a serious contender. He is well weighted in ot as well weighted as SoLID GOLD but boasts solid sprint form and has drawn similarly well on his Scottsville debut. Big chance. PRICELESS RULER needed his penultimate race badly as he produced a strong performance thereafter. If not finding this a bit short should give a good account of himself. SOCRATES wasn't far behind him so consider. AQUA BOLT is the dark horse.

PREVIEW TRACY'S PRINCESS was heavily backed on debut but disappointed and has subsequently charged stables. She comes off a break and could produce her obvious good early work. After showing improve-ment in sprints COVERT OPERATOR (blinkers on) ran a shocker over 1600m. She drops to the minimum trip and could be involved in the finish.  PREVIEW
 MARCHINGONTOGETHER and stablemate DON'T LOOK BACK meet up before this. The form is important to update. Of the remaining 4 runners lightly raced INFINITE WONDER who is only a one-time winner but has done well against strong opposition, could go in. He finished over 2 lengths ahead of WILLOW'S WISH but needed the run badly and should confirm. LEOPOLD disappointed last time and tries further. CATEGORY FOUR claims 4kg and could pop up.

26 accept for Grand Heritage

STRONG HAND: TRAINER SEAN TARRY HAS SEVEN RUNNERS IN FINAL LINE-UP

»> Four chalked up joint favourites at 8-1.

Jack Milner

R300,000 World he Sports Betting Grand Heritage (Non-Black Type) remains the most unique race in the country for a number of reasons.

Firstly, it is the only local race to comprise more than 20 runners, secondly, it is run over the unusual distance of 1475m and finally it is tailormade for lowerlevel horses to run for a big stake.

This year 26 horses have been declared to run in the Grand Heri-tage which will take place up the Vaal straight on Saturday 11 December.

As is so often the case, this event looks to be wide open, and it gives punters the opportunity to catch some huge payouts.

As was the case in the Gauteng Summer Cup, runners from the Sean Tarry yard dominate the field and he will saddle seven runners.

In fact, two of his runners -Willow Express and Indlamu are among the four horses at the top of bookmakers' boards, and along with Approach Control and Bold Jazz, are quoted at 8-1.

Tarry has put Summer Cup winning jockey Calvin Habib on Willow Magic while Gavin Lerena is aboard Indlamu.

Millard becomes doven of the Hong Kong dirt

Tony Millard has taken up the mantle as Hong Kong racing's dirt specialist, building an exceptional strike-rate on the surface in the last season and a bit, and it bodes well for Sunday's Sha Tin meeting.

No one has had more winners on the all-weather track since the start of 2020-21, the South African tasting success on 10 occasions to share that mark with this season's championship-leading handler Frankie Lor Fu-chuen.

But while Lor is only slightly better on the dirt than the turf -10from 67 (14.9%) on the all-weather track and 80 of 657 (12.2%) on the grass - the difference between the two marks for Millard is far more significant.

The 60-year-old has a strikerate of 20% on the dirt (10 of 50), compared to just 6.3% on the turf (27 of 427).

The surface has been a crucial part of Millard's haul over that period, providing 27% of his winners. In contrast, Lor's tally of 10 makes up just 11.1% of his victories.

It's a similar story for Francis Lui Kin-wai, who is next best with nine winners. He strikes at 10.5% on the dirt (nine of 86) and 10.6% on the turf (54 of 510), with 14.3% of his successes coming on the allweather track.

So, with those sort of numbers in play, punters need to pay close attention to the Millard runners when they step out on Sha Tin's inner circuit and there are three of them who fit the bill for this weekend's meeting.

Silver Fig has been the stable's most prolific performer on the allweather track in 2021 with three wins from three starts over the 1200m course and he will compete in the Class Two Carbine Club Of Hong Kong 30th Anniversary Cup. Matthew Poon Ming-fai retains the ride and he is likely to get back from barrier No 1 before attempting to rattle over the top of his rivals, as has become his custom.

But it will not be easy as the contest is a hot one with Douglas Whyte's Will Power, the Benno Yung Tin-pang-trained Ka Ying Master and Chancheng Prince, from the Lui yard, all having won their most recent starts on the surface.

Will Power races in a similar fashion to Silver Fig but will have to carry the top weight - even with Jerry Chau Chun-lok's 1.5kg claim – Ka Ying Master is racing in good form and will be around the mark while Chancheng Prince has been a revelation in his two runs on the surface – winning both – but they were over 1650m.

The other stand-out dirt runner for Millard is Ultra Express, who was a last-start winner over 1650m.

The son of Power has not missed a place in any of his last eight runs, winning four of them, and he's drawn perfectly in barrier No 3 for the Class Three Peridot Handicap. Star jockey Joao Moreira should be able to give him the gun run from there and even with the 60.5kg impost, he looks the one to beat.

Elite Patch, Infinite Power and Super Win Dragon might provide the biggest challenges.

Millard's other competitor to grace the all-weather track is Fortune Patrol, who lines up in the Class Five Jasper Handicap (1650m), but the seven-year-old will need to improve markedly on his first two runs of the campaign if he is to figure in the finish.

Six of Sunday's 10 races are on the all-weather surface as officials look to protect the turf and ensure it is in pristine condition for next week's Longines Hong Kong International Races. - SCMP

Chacun Pour Soi chases fifth Grade 1 win at Sandown

Five-time Grade 1 winner Chacun Pour Soi is set to make his seasonal return tomorrow as he lines up for the Betfair Tingle Creek Chase at Sandown under Patrick Mullins.

The nine-year-old will face four rivals in the Grade 1 as he returns to the track following a commanding success in Punchestown's Champion Chase in April.

It will be a first run in Britain away from Cheltenham for the Willie Mullinstrained star, who finished Guinness, who made a successful start to his season when winning a Grade 3 at Naas, completes the field.

Sandown's card tomorrow also features the Grade 1 Close Brothers Henry VIII Novices' Chase, which has been won in previous years by Altior and Sceau Royal and was last year claimed by the Dan Skelton-trained Allmankind.

The trainer aims to land the race once more with Third Time Lucki, who is bidding for a hat-trick this 4 HAYEDO 5 MANY WORDS (IRE) 6 OPTIMISTIC BELIEF

Flying Carpet rating raised to 116

hanges to merit ratings following the running of the Gauteng Summer Cup and other feature races at Turffontein on Tuesday.

WSB Gauteng Summer Cup (Handicap) (Grade 1)

FLYING CARPET has had his merit rating increased from 107 to 116 following his victory.

The handicappers took the view that consistent third finisher GOLDEN PHEASANT made for the most suitable line horse, leaving him unchanged on a rating of 112.

It must be taken into account that FLYING CARPET was 4 kg under sufferance, especially as the specific conditions of the Summer Cup pegged the minimum weight to be carried at 54kg and not the standard handicap 52 kg. This goes a long way towards the 4.5kg ratings increase FLYING CARPET incurred for his victory.

Similarly, runner-up MAJES-TIC MOZART was 2kg under sufferance and accordingly his rating was raised from 110 to 114. Fourthplaced JOHNNY HERO, who was 4kg out, but finished 0.75 lengths behind the line horse, has been raised from 106 to 110 and was the only other horse to receive ratings increase.

There were, however, rating drops for three horses. TIERRA DEL FUEGO was trimmed from 107 to 106, SECOND BASE drops to 115 from 117, and lastly SEEHAAM was dropped from 107 to 105.

WSB Dingaans (Grade 2)

SAFE PASSAGE has seen his rating raised from 100 to 110 following his victory.

The handicappers were of the opinion fifth-placed CASTLE-TOWN made for the best line horse, leaving him unchanged on a rating of 99.

Second-placed RED SAXON goes up from 84 to 107, third finisher ARAGOSTA is up from 96 to 105, and fourth-placed SUPER EX-CITED was raised up from 100 to 102

There were no other ratings increases, but three horses were

SA

RATINGS RAISED. Flying Carpet (left) and Majestic Mozart both had their merit ratings adjusted after finishing first and second respectively in Tuesday's WSB Gauteng Summer Cup over 2000m at Turffontein. Picture: JC Photographics given a drop. OCEAN WARRIOR is down from 96 to 94, BALOUCHI drops from 87 to 85, and lastly STARRYWINTERNIGHT is down from 90 to 85.

WSB Ipi Tombe Challenge (Grade 2)

Winner BOLD FORTUNE has had her merit rating raised from 103 to 105.

This time it was runner-up PERFECT WITNESS who was used as the line horse, which leaves her unchanged on a mark of 103.

There were also ratings increases for third-placed RAIN IN HOLLAND, who is up slightly from 105 to 106, and for fourth finisher CLAFOUTIS, who was raised from 92 to 95.

There were no other ratings increases, but there were drops for three runners. MOUNT LAUREL was cut from 108 to 104, ROUGE ALLURE is down to 100 from 102, and lastly RUNNING BRAVE drops from 113 to 111.

Magnolia Handicap WSB (Grade 3)

SOUND OF WARNING has had her rating upped from 107 to 111 following her win. The handicappers were of the unanimous view that ultra-consistent fourth finisher FULL VELOCITY was the correct line horse to use when assessing this event, leaving her unchanged on a mark of 95.

In rating the race this way, third placed ZIMBABA also runs to her mark and effectively also becomes a line horse, leaving her unaltered on a mark of 106, but there was a rating increase for second-placed Big Burn, who is up from 110 to 113.

There were no other ratings increases, but four horses received a drop. WINTER SMOKE was trimmed from 104 to 103, PETRA is down from 95 to 94, KAYLA'S

CHAMP is down to 97 from 98, and lastly TROPIC SUN was dropped from 109 to 107.

WSB Merchants (Handicap) (Grade 3)

Winner ALESIAN CHIEF had his rating raised from 112 to 116. It was fourth finisher IKIGAI who was deemed to make for the most suitable line horse, which leaves him unaltered on a rating of 107.

Second-placed BARTHOLDI (who was 1kg under sufferance) goes up from 100 to 104, while the only other ratings increase was for third-placed CARTEL CAPTAIN, who is up from 115 to 117.

There were ratings drops for four runners. ULTRA MAGNUS is down slightly from 120 to 119, TEMPTING FATE was trimmed from 112 to 111, CHIMICHURI RUN is down to 118 from 120, and lastly SAVANNAH STORM was dropped from 100 to 98.

Racing Association Stayers (Listed)

TheOitizen

MARCHINGONTOGETHER has had his rating increased from 101 to 104 following his victory. Fourth finisher CAPTAIN CHO-RUS was used as the line horse, which leaves him unchanged on a mark of 90.

In rating the race this way, second-placed BARAK and third finisher SUPER HANDSOME both run to marks of 95.

However, the specific race conditions do not allow for an increase in the rating of placed horses and accordingly these two remain unaltered on marks of 80 and 89, respectively.

There were, however, drops for four horses. PAYBACKTHEMON-EY is down from 90 to 88, DON'T LOOK BACK is down to 98 from 100, OUT OF YOUR LEAGUE drops from 108 to 107, and lastly IMPERI-AL RUBY is down from 104 to 102.

Tough games for big guns

»> The leaders in several major leagues face tricky matches this weekend and these clashes add heaps of spice to a variety of TAB soccer pools like Soccer 10.

By Mark Gleeson

here are slippery stones that front-runners in several major leagues must tread carefully over this weekend, including a tricky trip to the Cape for unbeaten PSL log-leaders Ma-melodi Sundowns. While their leadership of the DStv Premiership is not under threat, Sundowns travel to Stellenbosch tomorrow wary of the home team's high-speed attack.

And Kaizer Chiefs will be concerned about their clash with Cape Town City, who have been inconsistent this season but have the firepower to halt Chiefs' resurgence and knock them off second place in the standings.

Chelsea maintained their onepoint lead in the EPL on Wednesday when they won at Watford, although second-placed Man-chester City and third-placed Liverpool were more convincing victors on the night.

Tuchel still ringing in their ears.

We did not cope with the pressure, with the first ball, second ball," he said. Tuchel was also critical of the various mistakes that resulted in his side claiming a "lucky" victory. They cannot afford to be so lethargic against the Hammers, who are riding high in fourth spot.

In Spain Real Madrid have opened a handy lead with a win over Athletic Bilbao on Wednesday pushing them seven points clear.

But it was a fortuitous victory made possible by goalkeeper Thibaut Courtois.

They are away at third-placed Real Sociedad tomorrow night and that's never an easy task.

Madrid had to scramble a lastminute equaliser to avoid home defeat the last time the two clubs met. Sociedad are also unbeaten in their seven home games this season.

Germany and Portugal also have table-topping tussles as Bayern Munich go to Borussia Dortmund tomorrow and Benfica and Sporting Lisbon clash tonight.

Bayern have had the upper hand over Dortmund regularly of late but it remains a tough fixture, especially away where Dortmund fans create an intimidating atmosphere.

Sporting's boss Ruben Amorim is one of the hottest young coaching properties in European football and they won the title in Portugal last year for the first time in almost two decades.

They are making a strong bid again, sharing the lead with FC Porto a point ahead of Benfica.

Great matches that collectively make many TAB soccer pools ultra-attractive this weekend, especially because of the potential of huge payouts.
