Van Vuuren duo to shine

BIG RUNNER: PUERTO MANZANO BEST WEIGHTED IN GREYVILLE PINNACLE

» Marcus and Khumalo will ride the two raiders.

Jack Milner

Johan Janse van Vuuren takes two horses to Hollywoodbets Greyville tomorrow and both look very hard to beat.

Bookmakers are certainly not taking any chances with Abbacadabra and Puerto Manzano priced up heavily in the red.

While they both have winning form, one always has to consider they have to do the travelling, and both will be trying out the turf track at Greyville for the first time.

Abbacadabra comes up in Race 1, a Maiden Plate for fillies and mares over 1000m. The daughter of Judpot has only raced twice, running second to stable companion Permessio Avanti on debut over 1000m on the Turffontein Inside track and followed that up with a 3.65-length fifth behind Eyes On Tiger at the Vaal, also over 1000m.

She obviously shows a lot at home as she started a strong favourite on debut. She also might prefer racing around the turn based on her first race, so she should run well at Greyville, especially from No 3 draw.

She also will have Anton Marcus up this time.

Her main threat is likely to come from Ladies Day who has the experience at Greyville. She ran a decent race to end up a 0.50-length second behind Yata last time and jumps from pole position.

Puerto Manzano finished on the heels of the placed horses last time in the Grade 1 Gauteng Summer Cup over 2000m at Turffontein after making the pace and now drops to a Pinnacle Stakes over 2200m in Race 5.

He comes into this event as the best-weighted runner by at least 6.5kg and should take a power of

BEST WEIGHTED. Puerto Manzano is strongly expected to get back on the winning trail when he runs in Race 5 at Greyville tomorrow. Picture: JC Photographics beating.

Janse van Vuuren's charge was just 2.60 lengths behind Flying Carpet in the Summer Cup and undoubtedly has the class to beat this field. He looked to be heading straight for the top after four wins and two seconds from his first six runs, but his progress seems to have stuttered slightly and hopefully this race will bring back that winning confidence.

S'manga Khumalo picks up the ride for the first time, and as this race is over the same distance as the Durban July, a good performance should give racing fans some insight into possible plans for the Argentinian-bred four-year-old.

Voldemort has right credentials

Jack Milner

When it comes to being bred in the purple, Voldemort has it all. He is by William Longsword out of Secret Of Victoria, and that mare has produced some outstanding runners.

The best is probably The Secret Is Out but there was nothing wrong with All Is Secret and Canyoukeepitsecret either. They were all by Captain Al who also happens to be the sire of William Longsword.

So, Voldemort has big shoes to fill, not that he knows it, of course. But he started off well enough, having raced three times for one win. That victory happened to be over 1200m at Kenilworth, the same course and distance over which he lines up in Race 6 today to contest a MR 80 Handicap over 1200m.

In his first race, which was over 1000m, Voldemort ran on well after a slow start and despite racing greenly, put up the fastest time over the final 400m. When he won next time out he again produced the quickest finish.

His last start was over 1400m and his first around the turn. He once again showed his immaturity by hanging badly in the straight but continued to run on and ended up just 2.25 length behind Silver Falcon.

Vaughan Marshall has been using Anton Marcus to great effect recently and the former champion jockey has been engaged to ride this colt for the first time.

There appears to be a lot of improvement to come from this grey and he is confidently expected to be involved in the finish.

Paris Rix won a good race over 1100m at this track last time and although he met a weaker field, he did carry 62kg to victory.

He carries 2kg less this time and with Richard Fourie up, should give a good account of himself again.

Warrior wages war at Happy Valley

Luke Middlebrook

Hong Kong racing returns to Happy Valley today for an ever-competitive eight-race programme after Sunday's dramatic HKIR at Sha Tin.

After winning the G1 Hong Kong Mile, Golden Sixty is now the most prolific winner since the professional era of Hong Kong racing commenced in 1971.

Golden Sixty landed his 19th career win to surge past the previous benchmark of 18 he shared with Silent Witness and Beauty Generation. Golden Sixty now boasts 16-straight wins and needs one more to match Silent Witness' winning streak of 17.

Unfortunately in the Sprint South African jockey Lyle Hewitson's mount Amazing Star broke down approaching the 550m, causing a chain reaction which saw Zac Purton on race favourite Lucky Patch, Karis Teetan aboard Naboo Attack and Yuichi Fukunaga on Japanese hope Pixie Knight all falling.

Miraculously all four jockeys were conscious after the fall. Hewitson and Purton bore the brunt of the calamity, with the former suffering a fracture to his hip and a small bleed to the brain while Purton suffered three broken ribs and a broken nose.

Teetan was able to walk away unscathed, while Fukunaga was being monitored for a clavicle fracture.

Today at Happy Valley, in-form trainer David Hall can get two wins on end with five-year-old YEE CHEONG WARRIOR in the Class 4 1650m Handicap at Happy Valley.

YEE CHEONG WARRIOR joined Hall's stable during the off season after five starts for David Hayes last term, with two fourth placings his best results.

After a narrow miss first-up over 1200m in early October, YEE CHEONG WARRIOR then caught the eye late into seventh place over the same distance second-up before rising to the extended mile third-up and relishing it, scoring easily by a length.

Drawn well in barrier No 4 where he looks to secure the gun-run, while meeting no tougher task, YEE CHEONG WARRIOR stands out as one of the better bets on the card.

PREVIEW Highveld raider ABBACADABRA was second to a promising sort on debut round a track similar to Greyville. She didn't do too badly in her second start and her form overall makes her the one to beat. LADIES DAY was given a positive ride racing from the front and almost got the job done only finding one better. She has the best of the draw and can make it count. PERFECT APPEAL wasn't too far off against males last week and with fitness on her side should put in another honest bid. RASPBERRY BERET improved on her debut to finish third in a competitive race last week. She can confirm.

PREVIEW PERLARGONIUM wasn't disgraced on the poly and around the turn last time. She was backed in that and finished ahead of AUNTY LIZZY who re-opposes. PERLARGONIUM should appreciate being back on the turf and can make better progress. PURPLE MERCHANT came back to form after dropping in ratings recently and is now back over the track and trip where she is one from one. After needing her last run she should be dangerous. Highveld raider LOOKING HOT didn't enjoy it last time but now at a peak in her third run after a rest should put in a better performance.

FORECAST BETTING 8-10 PUERTO MANZANO; 7-2 FAVOUR; 6-1 WEALTHY; 7-1 ELECTRIC SURGE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW Highveld big race runner PUERTO MANZANO is in town and will be the drawcard on the day. He ran a brave race from the front in the Gauteng Summer Cup and on that, and ratings, should be the one to be with. FAVOUR is the one that will test him. He has proven stamina in the bank and a good record at this venue. ELECTRIC SURGE may be taking on males but won't be far off at the weights. She found her last race short and should come on in leaps and bounds. WEALTHY showed in his last race that he can threaten when racing after a rest and should be right there.

He's showing a stack of ability and Joao Moreira's booking here commands respect. #8 Happy Friends maps to get the right run from gate one. PREVIEW ■ Several with chances in a big field to start proceedings. TRIVIAL MATTER showed promise in two starts over this trip before a rest. He's likely to improve and the booking of Richard Fourie suggests a solid effort is expected. KING OF COLTS defied a market drift when third at big odds on debut in a work riders' race. He will be wiser to the task and could improve to play another leading role. A number of others could feature, including newcomer NAUSHON.

PREVIEW ■ Last-start course-and-distance winners T'CHALLA and SPRING AWAKENING are capable of following up but face a tougher assignment so will need to raise their game. The latter is worse off at the weights with ALL ABOUT AL who was unlucky not to have finished closer last time, but he could make amends on these terms in his peak outing. PREVIEW ■ MISS GREENLIGHT confirmed the promise of her debut second with another runner-up finish last time and, with natural improvement, should be opening her account soon. WHAT A CHERRY has shown promise in both starts over 1000m and gave the impression last time that she could have more to offer stepping up in trip. RAISING QUINN improved over further to this trip last time and is expected to build on that effort, so should be competitive. PREVIEW ■ Well-bred stablemates ZIPPY OVER and NTINGA fit a similar profile. Both are going the right way and appreciate the longer run-in over this trip. Kotzen-trained fillies EMPRESS OF JADE and HIGH DUDGEON are also maturing types who are open to improvement with blinkers fitted for the first time. PREVIEW ■ GLOBAL FORESTS wore blinkers for the first time when finishing second, ahead of DOUGLAS, in a handicap. Both are improving and should have a say in the finish. SUNDAY ISLAND finished second in three of his last four starts, all with blinkers, and should be competitive despite the widest draw. OVER TWO YOU and TOZZETTI have scope to improve going round. DOUBLE DUET is bred to appreciate this step up in trip so warrants respect having hinted at ability over shorter distances. This one is wide open.

FORECAST BETTING ■ 4-1 VOLDEMORT; 5-1 DOUBLE CHARGE; 6-1 STAR MASTER; 7-1 QUEEN'S WOOD; 8-1 TRANSACT; 10-1 PARIS RIX; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW ■ STAR MASTER was not disgraced in a sales race from a wide draw last time and a return to this trip and class should stand him in good stead. Riding arrangements, however, suggest stablemate and debut winner QUEEN'S WOOD is the pick from the yard, so could be worth following. Highly regarded VOLDEMORT should also enjoy reverting to this course and distance over which he shed his maiden tag. Consistent DOUBLE CHARGE boasts solid form at this level and is likely to give another competitive account of himself. MATTHEW THE KING, TRANSACT, PARIS RIX and WHAT A BOLT can take home a cheque.

PREVIEW ■ KZNI raider AFTER THE RAIN impressed by reeling off a four-timer and has scope for further improvement. He could be better than rated and must be respected on his track and Cape Town debut. LOOK FOR HOUNDS ran well against stronger on unfavourable terms over course and distance last time, so need only repeat that effort back in a handicap on the same mark to fight out the finish. ARCTIC DRIFT appears the pick of the Bass-Robinson runners on riding arrangements and should fare better back home but stablemate ADIOS AMIGOS will be suited by conditions and is preferred. IZAPHA can stake a claim.

FORECAST BETTING ■ 5-1 FORT RED, WINCHESTER MANSION, LET IT BURN; 6-1 FUTURE PRINCE; 8-1 AUS BOB; 10-1 PATH OF CHOICE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW ■ Hot race featuring a number of promising 3yo types, including stablemates WINCHESTER MANSION and FUTURE PRINCE who will both be looking to set the record straight having tasted defeat after winning introductions. The latter has been gelded and is likely to improve for it while the former is expected to improve stepping up in trip. Well-bred LET IT BURN confirmed the promise of his debut by winning at the second attempt and on that evidence will also have more to offer over the extra. FORT RED was collared late over further last time and a return to this trip should suit. Doesn't end there.
