It's a magic carpet ride

DOMINANCE: FLYING CARPET HANDS TARRY A FIFTH SUMMER CUP

» Habib produces a sensational ride as favourites fail.

Jack Milner

In recent years Sean Tarry has been the dominant trainer in the R2-million World Sports Betting presents the Gauteng Summer Cup. Yesterday he added his name to the winner's trophy of this Grade 1 race for the fifth time as 25-1 shot Flying Carpet produced the magic for the stable.

Jockey Calvin Habib delivered the four-year-old son of Judpot at the perfect moment to get the better of Majestic Mozart (17-1) by a head.

Third place went to Golden Pheasant (40-1) with Johnny Hero (100-1) in fourth.

Only then followed 33-10 favourite War Of Athena who was beaten just 2.30 lengths and finished just a short head behind Johnny Hero.

The result was a massive blow to bettors, and of the R4,299,615 Quartet pool, R1,384,025 ended up being carried over.

It has been a tough year for most people in the industry and particularly so for Tarry, so this victory will certainly come as a boost for the entire yard.

It was also a fairy tale ending for jockey Calvin Habib who has only recently returned from a horrific injury.

"It feels like a dream," he said after the victory. "Four months ago I fractured my back and I was off. I just put my faith in God. I said, He's got the script written and I just have to live it. "And look where we are today."

He particularly thanked Tarry for his support. "We hadn't cracked a winner together since my injury, but I knew (when we did) it would be something big.

"And what's bigger than this?" Puerto Manzano took the field along from Bingwa, who had to work a bit harder this time to overcome his wide draw. Majestic Mozart sat in third with Golden Pheasant just behind him.

Malmoos was well placed on the fence, about three lengths off them with Astrix and Seeham on his outside. War Of Athena was next best with Flying Carpet on her inside.

Got the Greenlight sat midfield while Sparkling Water raced at the back of a well strung-out field.

The picture changed halfway up the straight when it became apparent the big three were in trouble. Majestic Mozart took the lead from Golden Pheasant while Flying Carpet was creeping up on the leaders.

Flying Carpet tackled Majestic Mozart close home and then got his head down just when it mattered most to claim the honours.

"Everything just went to plan in the race," added Habib. "I just bided my time. I waited to pull the stick on him and when I asked him, he gave me all the way to the line.

"What a win!

"My wife recently joined the Tarry team, and she gave this horse love every single day since I got the ride on him. I think she put the extra touch on it."

At one time Flying Carpet as the highest rated three-year-old in the country. "It's been tough for him in that when the ability was there early on, he had to take part in quite a few battles and maybe he really wasn't battle-hardy," said Tarry.

"Fortunately, he's come down in the ratings and just on handicapping alone he had to have a chance."

Tarry was also full of praise for Habib's ride. "Calvin showed me he's got the mettle. He's prepared to do what I tell him to do, and he's prepared to try and get to the next level.

"He's grabbed the opportunity with both hands, and he deserves it."

Time to smile in Hong Kong

Luke Middlebrook

Consistent five-year-old A SMILE LIKE YOURS can score a third career win in Race 5, the Class 4 1200m Handicap, at Happy Valley today.

A SMILE LIKE YOURS has hit career-best form this term after not doing much in his first seven starts last season. Resuming one-length into third place in early September, A SMILE LIKE YOURS now boasts a handy CV of two wins and three placings from six so far this season and was last seen checking home a good third place at this track and distance two weeks ago in a much stronger Class 4 than he contests this time.

A SMILE LIKE YOURS finds a winnable contest this week where many of his rivals need to find better form while his main rival, WINS ALL, will need luck from a wide gate first-up off a 259-day break.

With Joao Moreira back in the saddle after winning well on A SMILE LIKE YOURS four starts ago, they appear the ones to hold out.

In Race 7, barrier No 2 can see easy last start winner HAPPY GATHERING make it two back-to-back wins when in the Class 4 1200m Handicap.

HAPPY GATHERING has found his best form this term based on his eye-catching run into third place when first-up in mid-September before breaking his duck second-up in a similar race to this.

That night he drew barrier No 4, enduring a perfect run one back on the rails before taking the lead at the 150m and going on to win comfortably by one length.

HAPPY GATHERING looks to have held his form after trialling nicely in between runs, while meeting a moderate Class 4 field where he has everything in his favour should see him make it a double.

Both, however, ran well before their best in subsequent races and need to put that behind them. MULETA needed her last outing and should contest the finish. SEEMYVISION disappointed last time but could resume honest ways. SLALOM QUEEN could win fresh if finding her form.

PREVIEW Tricky start to proceedings. PARIS RIX has rediscovered form in recent starts off a higher mark but has a lot of weight to carry and is held on these terms by TRAVEL MASTER, who benefited from the fitting of cheekpieces (retained) to win his last start. A resultant 4-point penalty seems fair but is unlikely to prevent him from making another bold winning bid. Well-related OVATION has scope and remains open to improvement, having possibly been in need of his last start after gelding - can pose a threat. PERSISTENCE is quick and could get away, so must be respected. MR FROSTIE can improve to earn.

PREVIEW RUSSIAN ROCK is slung-in on these terms. He made an encouraging seasonal reappearance in a similar contest over this trip and showed pace before tiring in a sprint feature last time. He'll be at peak fitness, is weighted to win and distance suited so is the one to beat. Stablemates CAPTAIN TATTERS and SOMERSET MAUGHAM would enjoy this longer trip from a better draw against her own sex. Last-start maiden scores DOUBLE CHECK and GIVERNY are improving and could be fairly treated now stepped into handicaps. FLEETING ran well on her handicap debut behind a progressive stablemate and is likely to build on that.

PREVIEW Clash of several progressive 3yo colts and geldings, with filly in the race OH SO SQUISHY an unlikely winner. Justin Snaith holds a strong hand with 3 runners, including 2 last-start winners. QUE SHIRAZ won from the front at a higher level last time but faces a tougher task conceding weight to all. Stablemate TIZONA and fellow recent maiden winner THE FUTURIST shed their maiden tags over a shorter trip and will appreciate both the step-up in trip and longer run-in, so should be competitive. DRAGONFLY made an eye-catching handicap debut in a sprint and could fight it out going this distance.

PREVIEW Former Equus Champion DO IT AGAIN showed in KZN he still retains a high-level of ability. He's the best-weighted runner on ratings and needn't be fully tuned to make a winning comeback. Consistent RASCALLION has mixed it with the best and deserves to add to his tally. He is well treated by these conditions and has had the benefit of a seasonal pipe opener, so will strip fitter and can fight it out. SOVEREIGN SPIRIT and ROCKIN' RINGO finished behind that rival last time but the latter is 5kg better off and a dangerous frontrunner. SACHDEV is also capable of making his presence felt.

He ran on well in a stronger contest over track and trip on handicap debut and should play a leading role if able to reproduce that effort under top weight. VIDA FUTURA is closely matched with that rival and 1kg better off on their recent meeting, so likely to fight it out. Stablemate IMPACT shed his maiden tag over a shorter distance last time but has improved with every step up in trip, so could pose a threat under bottom weight. Lightly raced maiden DOUGLAS is maturing and likely to improve to make his presence felt. BEL PUNTO has claims.

PREVIEW Tricky. DO ANGELS CRY has held her form but may need relief from the handicapper before winning again. Lightly raced SACHA should enjoy the longer run-in and could make her presence felt off another reduced mark. LILLYBELLE could be anything over this extended trip, so is best kept inside, while WINTER SCOUT should enjoy this longer trip from a better draw against her own sex. FORECAST BETTING 4-1 MOON ROCK; 5-1 DOUBLE CHARGE; 6-1 DEBONAIR, INFINITE PEACE; 7-1 BACK TO YOU; 8-1 SILENT TRIGGER; 10-1 T'CHALLA; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW Wide open. MOON ROCK continues to run well at this level and is course-and-distance suited. He has a big weight but is likely to be prominent for a long way. DOUBLE CHARGE was rewarded for consistency with his 2nd career win over track and trip in a lower grade last time and should go well again despite a 3-point rise. T'CHALLA had excuses for a disappointing showing last time but remains capable of bouncing back to form, as are SILENT TRIGGER and DEBONAIR who have scope to improve. Consistent BACK TO YOU and maturing INFINITE PEACE aren't without chances either in an open contest.

PREVIEW HAN SOLO, SUN DAZED and VENI VIDI VICCI are lightly raced and have scope to improve. They're closely matched on recent form and could emerge as the biggest threats. CAPTAIN'S KNOT and ON THE ROAD AGAIN are better than their recent form suggests and could make their presence felt at this level.
