Run As One looks best | Hewitson, Veale to

IMPROVING: DE KOCK'S CHARGE LOOKS READY TO PICK UP THIRD WIN

» Peter looks set for another strong performance.

Jack Milner

un As One can take advantage of a light weight to chalk up his third career victory at the Vaal tomorrow, when they return to the Classic track.

The Mike de Kock-trained runner clearly has some talent as he has raced just seven times for two wins and three places, but in his last start he appeared to be his own worst enemy.

The three-year-old son of Gimmethegreenlight found betting support in his first run back from a short layoff but had to be coerced into the starting stalls and ended up too far back in the early part of this MR 88 Handicap over 1800m at the Vaal.

He did run on well into third place but when they got to the finishing post, he was still 4.75 lengths adrift of winner Supreme Dance.

He lines up in Race 6, a MR 90 Handicap over 2000m, on this occasion and perhaps the extra distance will suit him a lot better.

He was gelded after just two starts and there do not appear to have been any major behavioural issues in his next four starts until his last effort. Hopefully he will not give jockey Muzi Yeni any hassles this time.

The main threat to Run As One appears to be Imperial Master from the Stuart Pettigrew yard. The four-year-old Master Of My Fate gelding has finished third in his last three races and will be looking for his third career win.

He would have to give 5.5kg to Run As One but that will be dimin-

BIG HEART. William Robertson, ridden by Ryan Munger and trained by Corne Spies, once again demonstrated his courage with a hard-fought victory over Outofthedarkness in the Grade 3 Tony Ruffel Stakes over 1400m at Turffontein on Saturday. Picture: JC Photographics ished as he has a 2.5kg claiming apprentice in the irons.

However, his best efforts have come over 1600m so the distance has to be a concern.

The best-performed runner is Captain Chorus but he has the opposite problem. He has been competing in feature races over long distances and Lucky Houdalakis' charge could find this trip a touch at the Vaal last Thursday and we could see a repeat performance of that effort tomorrow.

The stable sends out some potent runners, especially in the first four races. The first two are for juveniles, and in Race 1 he has Set To Go, who is one of the first crop of new sire Erupt.

The son of Dubawi won two Group 1 races over 2400m in Europe so his progeny should have quite a bit of stamina.

Set To Go is out of a Jet Master mare which makes him a halfbrother to sprinting filly On Cue.

In Race 2 Peter sends out Fennec Fox, a confident winner on debut. She looks the runner to beat

However, in both races Sean Tarry sends out two first-timers, both of whom will be ridden by Anton Marcus, so keep an eye on the betting.

Tuuletar was just touched off in her last start and will run against the boys in Race 3, a Maiden Plate over 1800m.

She does get a sex allowance which brings her in with just 56.5kg on her back and she is nicely drawn at No 3.

In Race 4, a MR 73 Handicap for fillies and mares over 1800m, Peter has improving three-yearold Bella Swan. She ran against stronger last time and is likely to top the betting boards in this event.

Warren Kennedy is carded to ride all of them but he had a fall at Fairview yesterday and although reported to be relatively okay, he was stood down for the remainder of the day. Hopefully he will be fit to ride by tomorrow.

Triton let his followers down last week but is quickly tried again and bettors are expected to recoup all their losses and then some at Greyville today when they race on the turf.

Trainer Carl Hewitson and jockey Sean Veale have been in good form. Veale, in particular, has been on fire, and it would come as no surprise were the duo to also score with Gimme A Rainbow, who like Triton is knocking hard at the door.

Triton confirmed his dislike for the Polytrack last week but back on the turf in Race 3, a Maiden Plate over 2000m, he should get back to where he left off. He lost his penultimate race, which was on the turf, by a short head to Billy Bazooka who enjoyed setting his own fractions. While Triton almost got to him Veale lost his reins and Triton was also carried

He gave the impression he could have kept going, so this 2000m appears ideal.

Race 7 is a competitive event but Gimme A Rainbow could now be ready to win this MR 73 Handicap over 1200m on a different surface.

Gimme A Rainbow has only won on the Polytrack but his last two races on the turf suggest he has wins to come on grass.

He was a stubborn third at Scottsville a few months ago but he looked even more dangerous when flying up behind Knight Warrior at Greyville a few weeks back. Given a better draw it could have been a different result and he now looks certain to finish ahead of re-opposing runner-up Captain Who, who has drawn badly.

Best bet on a competitive card looks to be Tempelhoff in Race 2, a Maiden Pate for fillies and mares over 1600m as she is improving nicely and now looks ready to win. Muzi Yeni rides.

PREVIEW RAINBOW MIRAGE made just her third start over a mile a winning one when scoring at this track last month and, in a race where plenty have questions to answer, the daughter of Garswood is tipped to land the spoils once again. The lightly-raced He's A Latchico is an intriguing prospect on his handicap debut and should be monitored closely in the market, while Star Of Valour also merits consideration now dropping

TIPS 4 AL MARMAR 3 ADDINGHAM 7 MEKBAT

PREVIEW It is hard to look past AL MARMAR here, after the son of Kodiac shaped with plenty of promise when second on his debut over course and distance just over a month ago. Improvement may well be forthcoming from the well-bred three-year-old and he is favoured ahead of the debutant Addingham, who hails from a family which his top yard has done particularly well with. PREVIEW all alsatar is an interesting prospect on his first run for George Boughey, having run well at this track last summer, and a bold showing is expected as he returns from a gelding operation. However, he may find the William Haggas-trained PINK CRYSTAL too classy this time, after the daughter of Shamardal posted another good effort when second at Wolverhampton last month. Newcomer Crush And Run is a half-brother to the useful sprinter Primo Uomo and is also worthy of consideration.

PREVIEW Value for more then the winning margin at Chelmsford last month, ANTIPHON looks just the type that could excel in handicaps and an opening mark of 78 appears manageable. It usually pays to be on the pace in sprints here and that is another plus for the son of Kodiac as he looks to fend off the likely challenge of Beauzon, who is far more exposed but has been knocking on the door of late with three consecutive top-three finishes. Angle Land and Resilience also warrant consideration.

EXCEED EXPECTATION has done decent work in the Western Cape and is overdue. He has been a beaten favourite and could live up to his name if overcoming a wide draw on local debut. BLAZING LIGHT races for a stable that is coming to hand and should make them chase hard as he races handlily and has been given the best of the draws. FORECAST BETTING 5-2 TEMPELHOFF; 7-2 AERIAL VIEW; 4-1 GLOBAL SECRET; 6-1 ROYAL OASIS; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW TEMPELHOFF looks well placed after a rest. She has been improving with each start of late and should have every chance of opening her account. However, she is dropping in distance. AERIAL VIEW has scope for good improvement. She showed little in two sprints but once taken around the turn she's got a lot closer, despite misbehaving. Expect more. GLOBAL SECRET has been a bit costly to follow but has secured the best of gates after jumping after two successive wide ones. Having Anton Marcus in the irons could see her score her overdue maiden win. ROYAL OASIS has definite claims too.

PREVIEW Open race to start the Pick 6. SYX HOTFIX was not disgraced finishing third after jumping from a wide stall. He has a better draw and should confirm the beatings of ATLANTIC CITY and GREY LINNGARI. But he needs to prove he wants this longer trip. TRITON was expected to go close again last time but the Polytrack seems to have been his undoing. Back on the turf he can go on to score if enjoying the longer trip. It could get close again between ATLANTIC CITY and STATEOFUSA. Both are overdue but need to find a bit more to win over this distance. NATIONAL FLAG could be the dark horse.

FORECAST BETTING 7-2 TOP ME UP HOLLY; 5-1 ALL AGLOW, INTEGRITY; 6-1 MORE THAN A DIME; 7-1 SILVER MARIA; 10-1 AQUAE SULIS; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW TOP ME UP HOLLY can follow up in her good last win as her six-point rise in merit rating should in most part be offset by a 2.5kg apprentice claim. She has the best of the draws to boot and can add to her Greyville tally. ALL AGLOW put in a decent performance on poly debut and is set for a bold effort back on the turf from draw No 2. She has room for further improvement. MORE THAN A DIME found a soft pace limiting last time. INTEGRITY should be right there too.

10-1 KAROO LARK, PAPA C; 12-1 AND UPWANDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW Nice race. TARANTINO gave signs he's ready to live up to expectations. He has run second to horses like Real Gone Kid and Global Drummer and did catch the eye over this trip on his Greyville debut. LOVE BOMB is weighted to win by some way and she did have a great prep a week ago so should test this field of males. She can score. Watch out for SHARE HOLDER who is more than capable of winning high-class contests over this distance. His stable has come to hand and he has a leading rider up. PAPA C and KEEP IT SECRET seem capable of better and need to be watched.

PREVIEW Looks the toughest race on the card. MISS GIBSON put in an attractive finish to oust more experienced individuals in just her second start. She should relish the longer trip as she is by Gimmethegreenlight, but she will have to overcome a wide draw. NAME OF THE GAME won as she liked and has the best of the draws. She will need to get going sooner, though, as she takes quite a drop in distance. THREE HEARTS should be a natural over the distance if her pedigree is anything to go by. Another who might improve over the trip is Flower Alley filly SOUTHERN CAPE. Cape filly ROSE PRINCESS must go in.

FORECAST BETTING 4-1 BERNIE'S DREAM, GIMME A RAINBOW: 6-1 BRAZIL NUT, CAPTAIN WHO: 10-1 PURPLE POWAHOUSE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW BERNIE'S DREAM is a bit better than his last - it was his second run after a rest and he may have gone flat. He is drawn well and should give a good account of himself in this class. GIMME A RAINBOW rates the form choice as he looks to have many held on his run when third to rejuvenated Knight Warrior. He's drawn well this time and can notch up win number three. PURPLE POWAHOUSE has also been given a better gate and after finishing within reach last time could prove be dangerous. BRAZIL NUT is knocking hard and may prefer the drop in trip. FORECAST BETTING 4-1 PRINCESS DONELLY; 6-1 IMBEJEJE, CRAZY BLUES, TWICEASFAST; 7-1 LADY YUSRA; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW CAPETOWN BEAUTY can turn the form around with PRINCESS TEA over the shorter trip and given the fact the latter is now drawn No 13. But this is not an easy race. PRINCESS DONELLY won better that the margin suggested last time and the form has been proven with Purple Merchant winning. CRAZY BLUES keeps pulling good gates and after a confidence boosting win can follow up in this company. TWICEASFAST needed her last run and is one from one over the course and distance so needs to be taken seriously as well IMBEJEJE can improve over this shorter trip.
