G1 double for Snaith

STUNNING: JET DARK WINS SECOND SUCCESSIVE QUEEN'S PLATE

» Captain's Ransom clings on to take out Paddock Stakes.

et Dark joined an elite list of horses at Kenilworth on Saturday when he won the R1.5-million L'Ormarins Queen's Plate for the second successive Ridden by S'manga Khumalo, the Justin-Snaith-trained son of Trippi stormed down the inside rail to win the Grade 1 race by 2.25 lengths.

Remarkably, last year's champion found little betting support and was allowed to drift from an opening call of 9-2 to go off at 10-1.

Second place went to Kommetdieding, who touched off TAB favourite Rainbow Bridge by a head with Seeking The Stars in fourth.

"Just look at him, a beautiful animal - such a stunning individual," an ebullient Snaith remarked about his champion.

Despite a slightly slow start, Khumalo felt he always had everything under control. "Jet Dark was so relaxed and with the pace being on, I chose to wait on him. I slapped him down the shoulder and then he really kicked."

As expected, After The Rain, Pomp And Power and Seeking The Stars ensured the pace was brisk, with Linebacker in touch with them.

Rainbow Bridge was midfield with Jet Dark lagging behind him and in a stretched-out field, Kommetdieding was one from last.

Halfway up the straight sevenup on the outside with a powerful move while Kommetdieding also made a bold rally from far back.

However, once Khumalo had Jet Dark in full cry the race was over as he romped to a third Grade 1 victory within a year. It was Khumalo who rode him to victory in the Grade 1 Champions Cup over 1800m at Greyville in July.

Perhaps the biggest disappointment was Linebacker who could only manage seventh spot, although he was only beaten 3.90 lengths.

The Grade 1 Cartier Paddock Stakes over 1800m for fillies and year-old Rainbow Bridge loomed — mares got the heart rates raised as Captain's Ransom just lasted from Grade 1 Cape Fillies Guineas winner Chansonette, Marina and Princess Calla, with just 0.70 lengths separating the first four home in a thrilling finish.

The winner was also trained by Snaith, who had four winners at the meeting.

Successful jockey Richard Fourie was effusive in his praise for this multiple G1 winning daughter of Captain Al - now victorious in nine of 11 outings.

'She was difficult today and I needed to get sideways in the saddle to straighten her out, but she is a star and very close to my

Snaith gave his assessment of her performance. "She does not really get 1800m, it's just that she is so good – it's as if she has a sports car engine!"

Captain's Ransom drifted from 12-10 to 15-10 at the off as money came on for Marina and Chansonette.

Andre Nel-trained Chansonette got mighty close as her challenge fell marginally short when she too hit her stamina limit, while Marina launched a belated surge from way back to get within a head at the wire.

As expected by trainer Candice Bass-Robinson, Marina took time to fully unwind and is definitely looking for further. Bass-Robinson indicated her charge will now be aimed at the Cape Town Met over 2000m. - Cape Racing

Zambaq to score for Snaith yard

Jack Milner

After a successful weekend at the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Festival, it is back to the mundane for Snaith Racing.

Justin Snaith will be looking for a somewhat lesser feature-race conquest today when Zambaq travels to Fairview in Port Elizabeth to contest Race 7, the Aloe Handicap (Non-Black Type) for three-yearold fillies over 1300m on the Polytrack.

This Rafeef filly has done well enough so far, winning twice from just seven starts and considering she finished only 10th on debut, it shows she has improved nicely.

Zambaq will be having her first taste of the Polytrack and travelling will be new to her, but she showed in her two wins over 1400m last year she does have some ability.

Both of those wins were on a soft track and wins on that type of going bodes well for an adjustment to the Polytrack.

It is also worth noting that Richard Fourie travels to Port Elizabeth gets the mount.

Although it is a handicap and there are six rivals, she does look the one most likely to be ahead of her mark and her recent runner-up berth behind Maledino in a handicap suggested her next win would not be long in coming.

If she does make the necessary adjustment to the surface Zambaq will take all the beating and looks the stand-out bet on the card.

If one is looking for back-up it could be worth considering the "safe" combination of trainer Alan Greeff and jockey Greg Cheyne. They team up with Franca who is unbeaten in two runs on the Polytrack, one at Greyville and another on debut in Port Elizabeth last month.

Both wins were over 1000m, so the concern is how she will handle the extra 300m, although she did score a narrow win over 1200m at the Vaal on turf.

PREVIEW Wide open. QUIET REBELLION has most scope for improvement but has a wide draw to overcome. LEE EXPRESS showed improvement with blinkers last time but hasn't fared much better in the draw GREENGROWTHELILACS should make her presence felt in new surroundings. ETERNAL LIFE has a shout if can double up. WARSHIP could be crying out for the extra. Many with claims.

SUN; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

TIPS 5 DR T J ECKLEBURG 1 ILLICO DES PLACES 7 IMPERIAL SUN

PREVIEW Illico Des Places was fancied to be very competitive on his UK debut when a well-beaten fifth at Kempton over the Christmas period after pulling way too hard in the early part of the contest. If settling better, he would command the utmost respect having been impressive when scoring at Chateaubriant in May. That said, the vote goes to DRT J ECKLEBURG, who ran with a fair amount of promise when runner-up at Newbury and that form has since been boosted by the winner of that race going on to place in a Grade 1. Imperial Sun was a useful handicapper for John and Thady Gosden on the Flat and has to be of interest on his hurdling bow for new connections.

TIPS 1 DEMACHINE 4 LEGENDS GOLD 3 QUICK WAVE

PREVIEW DEMACHINE shaped well on his seasonal return when fifth in the Ladbrokes Trophy at Newbury, appearing to need the run, and the eight-year-old makes plenty of appeal with the handicapper dropping him 2lb. He remains open to further improvement over fences, with this being his sixth outing, and this seems a suitable opportunity for him to get his head back in front. Quick Wave arrives having had wind surgery, which is likely to see her take a step forward, while Legends Gold and Castle Robin are both capable of being in the mix to.

PREVIEW ONE FOR YOU never fully recovered from a bad mistake on his most recent start at Newbury in November and the ease in grade presents a solid opportunity for Philip Hobbs' gelding to return to the form shown at the back end of last season, as well as on his comeback. Khan has been in decent form over the past few months and another bold bid is expected, while Ratfacemcdougall is back on his last winning mark and he wasn't disgraced when fourth at Haydock last time.

PREVIEW JET PLANE had the race at his mercy when falling at the last in a Warwick handicap on his latest start and, on his return to maiden company. Dan Sketlon's six-year-old looks set to gain compensation. The Nicky Henderson-trained Go Sacre Go remains unexposed and can produce a bold performance, while In Our Dreams is better than he showed on his comeback at Uttoxeter and may also get involved.

PREVIEW Bridge North sets the standard on form and after a solid second in a C&D handicap, the well related gelding should make a bold bid. However, he may have to play second fiddle to the Nicky Henderson-trained MOONLIGHT FLIT, who had every chance when falling at the last at Ffos Las on his latest start. Has Troke also hit the deck when looking a threat at Market Rasen last month and is another to note.

TIPS 1 JAVA POINT 5 JIMMY THE DIGGER 2 ISOLATE

PREVIEW JAVA POINT appeals most after a gallant runner-up effort at Doncaster on his second start over the larger obstacles, and for new connections. Raised 4lb, the seven-year-old is likely to be well suited by going up in trip, having struck over further than this over timber at Warwick back in March. An easy winner at Kempton in October, Isolate could be the chief threat if reproducing that sort of form, although Jimmy The Digger is likely to be staying on when others have cried enough.

TIPS 8 PEERLESS BEAUTY 7 PARISIENNE GOLD 12 YOU WEAR IT WELL

PREVIEW Narrowly denied by a well-backed Harry Fry-trained newcomer at Plumpton, PEERLESS
BEAUTY can get off the mark at the fourth time of asking under Rules. Runner-up on her last couple of outings now, she is preferred to Parisienne Gold, who would hold strong claims if bouncing back to the form of her debut third at Bangor. Of the newcomers, You Wear It Well is of interest, with the dam having won twice in this sphere, as well as stablemate Ebonello, whose dam won first time out.

PREVIEW JACKBEQUICK has shown consistency since blinkers were fitted and in a weak field, he should be right there at the finish. Stable companion STAY THE COURSE was a disappointment on local debut but has a winning chance. Trainer Alan Greeff has MIDNIGHT COWBOY (who makes his local debut) and JACK'S JAMBOREE (who clearly needed his local debut) and both cannot be dismissed easily. FORECAST BETTING 1-1 INHERIT THE RAIN; 16-10 STRANGER DANGER; 5-1 EVIES FIRST; 10-1 CROWN GUARDIAN, CRUZADOR; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW A small field, but a couple of decent sprinters clash and it should produce a good finish. STRANGER DANGER was beaten in some modest races earlier in his career but has been in very good form of late and this speedy customer will not be easy to reel in if allowed to dictate matters. INHERIT THE RAIN has shown a liking for this surface since joining trainer Alan Greeff and would not be a surprise winner. EVIES FIRST is consistent, and although taking on two tough competitors, must be considered. CROWN GUARDIAN seems to have lost his way of late and could be looking for further.

PREVIEW PARIS RIX was not beaten far in a better race than this in the Western Cape last time out and he could prove to be a bit better than these rivals. NO LAYING UP and QUERARI FERRARI have put in disappointing efforts on this surface of late and probably prefer the turf, but are not out of it either. FORECAST BETTING 11-2 CANE LIME 'N SODA, MAGARI; 10-1 CHARLIE MCCREEVY, BOLD STRIKE, YOUNG NELSON; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW Am open-looking race and we will probably need to go as wide as possible in the exotics to survive. INNERSPACE is not very reliable but is not out of it. ON YOUR MARKS finally showed what he is capable of with an easy maiden victory last time out. Trainer Zietsman Oosthuizen has his yard's runners in good form and both CHARLIE MCCREEVY and CANA are two who could be included. CRYSTAL STREAM is course-anddistance suited and must be considered. CANE LIME 'N SODA and MAGARI make their local debuts and it would not be a surprise were they to fight out the finish.

PREVIEW DIVINE ODVSSEY returned from a break for a solid win last time out and could follow up, but the bounce-back-from-a-break factor could come into play. ARANJUEZ was not disgraced when runner-up last time and must be considered. Stable companions from the Gavin Smith yard, BARBERTON SILVER and MONEY. ANCIENT TIMES, should come on from their last runs and can be included in larger perms. MISS ORANGE has a winning chance, JACOB'S LADDER has been thrashing his opposition of late but does tackle some better rival this time so it will be interest to see if he will rise to the occasion.

FORECAST BETTING 3-1 MACH FOUR, EL ROMIACHI; 6-1 MOON GAME; 7-1 WINGS OF FIRE; 15-2 PHIL'S POWER, STORM COMMANDER; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW 1 Another competitive-looking race. MACH FOUR makes his local debut but has done well on this surface and can go close. EL ROMIACHI is in the form of his life and won another good race last time out. Has the handicapper caught up to him though? PHIL'S POWER and STORM COMMANDER are capable of the good better than their recent form suggests. Stable companions WINGS OF FIRE and MOON GAME are capable of winning but their trainer's horses have not been in the best of form of late. PSYCHO KING is clearly unreliable but is also capable of an upset.

TO HEAVEN; 10-1 SAVANNAH WINTER; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW I FRANCA was an easy winner when trying this surface last time out. That was in a weaker race but she still does deserve respect. Stable companion LOLLAPALOOZA disappointed last time but is better than that run would suggest. ZAMBAQ tries the Polytrack for the first time but has done well on a soft track which tends to suggest she will have no problem with it - and does look the one to beat if bringing her best form to the course. MISS NIBBLES beat rival TWICE TO HEAVEN last time out but there should not be much between them and they can also run well again.

FORECAST BETTING 3-1 MASTERFUL; 4-1 KINGSTON ROCK; 9-2 RED EIGHT; 6-1 BALTIC BEAT, DOGLIOTTI; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW A weak race and any type of result is possible. BALTIC BEAT was not disgraced when runner-up last time and deserves respect. Stable companion DOGLIOTTI has not been at his best of late but could bounce back to score. Yet another Gavin Smith runner, MASTERFUL, has been in good form and the horse he beat, Great Guy, has since won. KINGSTON ROCK is holding form and has a winning chance. RED EIGHT is better than his last run and has come from the Western Cape to compete in this so should be included in all bets.
