Big Burn to cast a spell

CLOSE CALL: PETER'S CHARGE SHOULD HAVE THE EDGE IN SWALLOW STAKES

» Two old foes meet in Race 4 Pinnacle Stakes.

Jack Milner

We are only a few weeks away from the start of the Highveld autumn season with the Grade 1 Gauteng Guineas and Gauteng Fillies Guineas scheduled to be run on Saturday 5 February.

Those two races see the start of the SA Triple Crown and Wilgerbosdrift SA Triple Tiara so warm-ups for those features now begin in earnest.

As a result we have some excellent racing at Turffontein tomorrow where we have some top horses in action

Heading up the card is the Listed Swallow Stakes for three-year-old fillies over 1160m and although only six runners have been carded to go to post, it looks quit a competitive race.

The two best performers in the line-up are Big Burn from the Paul Peter yard and Sean Tarry-trained Under Your Spell. Both were leading juveniles last season and have trained on well.

The edge in this race has to lie with Big Burn, who beat Under Your Spell by 1.60 lengths in the Grade 2 Joburg Spring Fillies And Mares Challenge over 1450m on the Inside track at Turffontein in October.

Under Your Spell is 1kg better off but that should not be enough to reverse the form.

Last time out Big Burn ran in the Grade 3 Magnolia Handicap over this course and distance but was touched off by another Tarry-trained filly, Sound Of Warning,

GOOD FORM. Big Burn looks to have the edge over her rivals in the Listed Swallow Stakes at Turffontein tomorrow. Picture: JC Photographics going down by 0.25 lengths, but giving the winner 1.5kg.

Tarry rates Sound Of Warning highly and took the filly to Cape Town to contest the Grade 2 Cartier Sceptre Stakes over 1200m at Kenilworth. She was priced up favourite for that event but had to be withdrawn at the start due to circumstances beyond her control.

Warren Kennedy rides Big Burn, while Calvin Habib will be aboard Under Your Spell.

Peter has good back-up in Freed From Desire and she is pretty speedy, too. She will be chasing a fourth successive victory and has a top jockey in Gavin Lerena in the irons.

Every time War Of Athena comes to the racetrack it is a special occasion so most pundits will be delighted to see this four-year-old daughter of Act Of War line up in Race 4, a Pinnacle Stakes over 1400m.

Paul Matchett's charge is preparing to line up in the Cape Town Met at Kenilworth on Saturday 29 January and this will be her final warm-up run for the Grade 1 race over 2000m.

This distance is a little on the sharp side for her but she does have a record of three wins and two places from five runs over 1400m at this track.

Ironically, one of the horses who inflicted one of those defeats will line up against her and that is MK's Pride.

It was in the Ready To Run Cup that Paul Peter's charge fought on strongly to gain a miniscule victory over the filly.

Both have come on a lot since then but interestingly, MK's Pride is now 1.5kg better off so we could be in for a fascinating race.

Warren Kennedy still rides MK's Pride but Muzi Yeni will replace S'manga Khumalo aboard War Of Athena for this clash.

Rainbow Bridge retires

An injury has forced one of South Africa's great horse, Rainbow Bridge, into retirement.

In a statement released yesterday, trainer Eric Sands broke the sad news to the racing public.

He wrote: In the words of Mrs Norma Rattray: "All good things must come to an end."

Sands added: I was very pleased with Rainbow Bridge's effort in the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate on Saturday. A perfect run, in preparation for the upcoming Cape Town Met.

But it is not to be. He jarred his near fore knee in the race, and it has got progressively worse throughout the week. After consultation with (owners) Mr and Mrs Rattray, we have decided it is in the best interest of Rainbow, as he is affectionately known in the stable, to retire him. He has done us proud, and his well-being is first and foremost.

It was a tough decision for many, but not so in the case of the Rattrays. They would never risk their Horse Of The Year being seriously injured. It is an honour and a privilege to train for such owners.

After them, I spoke to Mary Slack, who bred Rainbow Bridge at Wilgerbosdrift Stud. Sad, yes, but the decision was unanimous. Rainbow deserves the best.

He will stay in my yard until he is ready to travel back to his "nirvana" at Wilgerbosdrift. In the yard we will embrace his well-deserved retirement.

I "found" him on the farm, as I did with my previous Horse Of The Year Flobayou, and I must go searching again.

A big thank you to all his supporters.

The seven-year-old son of Ideal World raced 26 times for 11 wins and 13 places. He won five Grade 1 races - the Cape Town Met twice, the Gold Challenge twice and the Champions Cup.

PREVIEW: NAMAQUALAND probably needed his local debut. That was on the Polytrack and he could surprise going back to the turf. MESMERIZING MOON is consistent and could earn some more money. DALEEL has been unreliable since winning well a couple of months ago but is not out of it if showing her best side.

Lyle elated to be back

RECOVERY: SA CHAMPION OVERCOMES FRACTURED PELVIS INJURY

» Hewitson lands eight rides at Sha Tine, all with wide draws.

Everyone is excited to see Lyle Hewitson back in the saddle – except, it seems, the barrier gods. The three-time champion jockey of South Africa has eight rides at Sha Tin on Sunday, his first meeting back after recovering from a fractured pelvis suffered in the horrific fall during last month's Group 1 Hong Kong Sprint.

Hewitson bore the brunt of the impact – his horse Amazing Star was the one who broke down, instigating the crash – so it is fantastic to see him make his return so quickly.

His physical health is one thing, but riders also need to be in the right head space to enter the field of battle and Hewitson has no doubt he's ready to go.

"It can affect some people mentally, you get on and you're a little bit nervous or a little bit more cautious but I've had a couple of falls and – whether small or big – I've never been one to come back and say 'let me get my confidence back on the horse again'. It's all I've wanted to ever do – I just want to ride all the time," Hewitson said.

"So from a mental side of things, it's never been something that's affected me so I was more excited to ride again – my confidence never left.

"In this instance especially, I was knocked out and I don't remember much of it – I can't even replay what happened in my mind, so it didn't happen according to my memory.

"I've watched it but it feels like I'm watching someone else. It's like I'm watching from an outside perspective – it's strange."

The 24-year-old has ticked all the boxes with his medical team, been back at trackwork for a week and ridden in a few trials so now it's time to get back to work.

"My pelvis is great – there are no issues at all. I've been hiking the last few days and I'm getting through it really well and probably the last five days I've realised I'm able to run properly again – I just needed the muscles to activate again. So in terms of my well-being I'm 100 per cent and now with racing I'll be getting 100 per cent race fit," he said.

"It feels like I never left. In fact, when I first started riding trackwork again I was more comfortable in the saddle than I was walking or jogging. It was really easy and really comfortable.

"I could have easily ridden on Wednesday night but I never had a card of rides pre-booked so I thought the extra four days would benefit me to build me up a bit more – get some more fitness and plan some rides. Going into the meeting, I'm happy with how everything is feeling."

Having eight rides in his first meeting back exceeds Hewitson's expectations but given his second Hong Kong stint has only just started, he's delighted with the outcome.

"I had five rides pre-booked and I was happy with that and then when the entries came out I kept getting offers and I'm still building a foundation and building relationships so I was more than happy to take them – I was pretty pleased to be getting the offers," he said.

BACK AT THE HELM. Lyle Hewitson gives the thumbs up after returning to trackwork in Hong Kong last week. Picture: Kenneth Chan

"It will be a test but I've done what I can going into the meeting and I feel good about that."

The only real negative came on Thursday morning when the fields were announced and Hewitson realised six of his eight mounts had been handed double-digit draws – and another given barrier nine – which doesn't seem particularly fair in the circumstances.

"It's a difficult pill to swallow but you can't change it now so no point in harping on it from my perspective," he said. "I've just got to work hard to give them the best rides from those draws."

The South African rates the Douglas Whyte-trained Shining Red, who he partners in the Class Four Shek Kip Mei Handicap (1,400m) as his best chance.

"He ran a cracker on debut and he had excuses in his second start. He's had some rest since then and they've managed to get two trials into him – I think he's a decent sort," Hewitson said.

"I just think he's the type of horse that has upside because he's not exposed. There could be quite a bit more there. If things go smoothly from the draw, I'm sure he'll be there." – South China Morning Post

Raiders to rule in KZN

Jack Milner

The Listed Michael Roberts Stakes over 1750m heads up the Scottsville card on Sunday and it is another feature that could be fought out by raiding trainers.

Justin Snaith sends out Crown Towers, who won The Sledgehammer (Listed) over this course and distance last year in his only visit to Scottsville. The nine-time winner from 25 starts is a strong front runner and is hard to catch when in a galloping mood.

Paul Peter sends Astrix, who has been running in far stronger company and placed in the Grade 2 Onamission Mile, the Grade 3 Victory Moon Stakes and the Grade 3 London News Stakes.

The pair will occupy the first two barrier position and will be ridden by Anton Marcus and Warren Kennedy respectively.

The race is usually a thriller and can boast some very useful individuals.

Tristful would be deserving and he is of the calibre of Crown Towers, Astrix and a few others but he has again been given a tough task jumping from stall No 12, which is not going to help his chances.

Capoeira is another who is capable on his day but another to consider, although not well weighted, is Spring Fling. He has his work cut out but he likes the course and has S'manga Khumalo up, which could help his chances.

Peter's day should start off with a bang as he looks to have placed Maradiva well in Race 1, a Maiden Plate over 1000m. The Twice Over three-year-old moved from Cape Town to Peter late last year and obviously enjoyed his new surrounding as he notched up two quick seconds, both over 1000m.

Merit rating changes after Queen's Plate Festival

There were a number of alterations to the merit rating of runners who featured prominently at the two-day L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Festival at Kenilworth last weekend.

The main even was the Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate over 1600m won for the second successive year by Jet Dark. He remains unchanged on a merit rating of 130 as he was deemed to make for the best line horse when assessing this race, which is the reason for his unchanged rating.

Fourth-placed Seeking The Stars was raised from 121 to 124, while fifth finisher Pomp And Power goes up from 110 to 117. In rating the race this way, Pomp And Power actually runs to a mark of 124, but the Handicappers were reluctant to take this entirely at face value and opted to give the gelding half the achieved adjustment, with 117 being halfway between his old rating of 110 and 124.

There was one further increase, and this was for sixth placed Pacaya, who is up from 95 to 108 in order to make him rated two points higher than the 106-rated eighth finisher Trip Of Fortune.

The only drop was for third-placed Rainbow Bridge, who has failed to confirm the 134 he achieved when winning the 2021 Cape Met in five subsequent performances and has accordingly been adjusted to his next highest performance of 130.

This also ensures he is not rated higher than the Jet Dark, who beat Rainbow Bridge into second when winning the race last year.

Captain's Ransom remains unchanged on a mark of 126 following her success in the WFA Grade 1 Cartier Paddock Stakes for fillies and mares over 1800m.

It was the ever-consistent fourth-placed Princess Calla who was considered to make for the most suitable line horse, which leaves her unchanged on a mark of 118. In rating the race this way, Captain's Ransom only runs to a rating of 119, hence her unaltered rating.

Fifth-placed She's A Keeper also runs to her rating of 116, effectively making her a line horse as well.

Second-placed Chansonette is up from 110 to 118, while third-placed Marina goes up from 110 to 118.

The only other increase was for Eastern Cape visitor Santa Therese, who is up from 104 to 106, which ensures she is rated higher than any of the horses who finished behind her.

The only drop was for Pretty Betty, who is down from 106 to 104.

Hoedspruit remains unchanged on a rating of 116 after his win in the Grade 2 Glorious Goodwood Premier Trophy over 1800m.

The Handicappers were of the view fifth-placed Native Tongue made for the most appropriate line horse, leaving him unchanged on a rating of 105. In assessing the race this way Hoedspruit only runs to a mark of 108, which is the reason for his unaltered rating.

Runner-up Super Silvano was raised from 105 to 107, while the only other ratings increase was for third placed Firealley, who goes up from 107 to 109.

Two horses were given a rating's drop. Fourth-placed Sovereign Spirit is down from 118 to 116 and in all likelihood would have been given a bigger drop had he not returned suffering from a bilateral nosebleed, for which he has received a 120-day suspension from competing in races.

The only other drop was for Nexus, who is down from 116 to 113.

Doublemint remains unchanged on a mark of 110 following his victory in the Grade 3 Okapi Chairman's Cup over 2500m.

Fifth-placed Holy Warrior was deemed the best line horse, which leaves him unchanged on a rating of 93. In assessing the race this way, Doublemint runs slightly below his rating, running to a mark of 110, which explains his unchanged rating.

The specific conditions of this event do not allow for any increase to the ratings of horses other than the winner although runner-up One Way Traffic and Sudden Star ran

Gimme Dat's rating was raised from 98 to 109 after winning the Grade 2 Cartier Sceptre Stakes for fillies and mares over 1200m at Kenilworth in very unusual circumstances on Friday.

She originally finished second behind Mercury Rising but the latter was deemed to have enjoyed an unfair advantage as a result of her starting gate opening prematurely and was accordingly declared to be a non-runner.

Highly consistent second-placed Capitana was used as the line horse, leaving her rating unchanged on 106. In assessing the race this way, sixth-placed Dancetildaylight runs to her rating of 96 and effectively makes her a line horse as well.

The winner aside, the only other increase was for third-placed Major Attraction who is up from 100 to 103, but no fewer than five horses were given a rating's drop. – Phil's Dancer, Maryah, Keep The Lights On, Iris and Roll In The Hay.

PREVIEW Highveld raider MARADIVA can open his account on the first time of asking in KwaZulu-Natal. He finished runner-up in his last two but gelding could see a more polished performance. MCCARTNEY did a lot better after gelding, finishing third. He will strip litter and on ratings should be right there at the finish. NDAKA had BLESS ME FRED and GLOBAL PATH beat when a good second to promising Botz. He is overdue and runs his best races at this venue. BLESS ME FRED could get closer with a 2.5kg apprentice claim and GLOBAL PATH looks to have drawn best of the three so needs to be included.

PREVIEW FEARLESS KITTY is going about it the right way and is improving with each start. She needs to get going sooner but does have the best of the draws so should have every chance. If she doesn't, GLOBAL SECRET can take full advantage. She has been building up confidence and after finding one better last time should make amends. TEMPELHOFF was cut into when beaten as favourite in her last start. Her previous form entitles her to the utmost respect. SNOW TUNE is also holding form and she is versatile, having run well on turf and poly. Must go into Trifecta and Quartets.

PREVIEW PARK AND FLY was allowed to relax at the back of the field and showed her true form in running second. She should enjoy this longer straight and can open her account. SIEGE OF ORLEANS and SEXY SHIRAZ weren't far off the former and need to be taken seriously at this venue. The former has run well at this course and may relish returning to the track. She jumps from a decent draw. The latter has scope for big improvement after doing a lot better in blinkers last time. She is well bred. EDGE OF WINTER needs to show he stays. If he does he could be dangerous. MADIBA'S CUPPA can start to improve.

PREVIEW VIVID JET was unlucky not to get up and beat STAR ACT who completed a hat-trick. Two speedy fillies. VIVID JET likes to come from behind and catch a horse like STAR ACT, who looks to tear away up front. Both are in good form and should run big races. PELARGONIUM has more to come and was fancied in her two disappointing runs at Greyville. She is back at her best track and could impress. SOCIAL BUTTERFLY was fancied in a very strong race on local debut and could be the one they all have to beat if taking to Scottsville. CALULO is not without a chance.

PREVIEW JOSHUA HOTSNAKE won well enough to suggest he could follow up on handicap debut. He looks to be well placed in this field and has the best of the draws. Fellow three-year-old ALL THE TIME can be a difficult ride but also won his maiden with some authority. He finished ahead of JOSHUA HOTSNAKE in the maidens but the latter did suffer an injury in that race. Could get close. Another recent maiden winner, FRENCH MASTERPIECE, won as he liked and if not minding the drop in distance could threaten. However, he did beat a weak field. PREVIEW The last time MAIDENS PRAYER ran over this course and distance she ran a cracking second to Humdinger, an up and coming youngster. She has secured pole position again and it could pay to follow her this time. LUCKY MISS earlier lost her first try over this track and trip finding one better but has matured and has enjoyed the mile distance recently. She could be up to the task now. PREVIEW Strong renewal of the Michael Roberts Stakes. CROWN TOWER is one from one over the course and distance so has no problem stepping away from his specialist Greyville track. However, there looks to be good pace in the race so he may not have his own way. ASTRIX has been in terrific form upcountry, just missing out on the majors, and could get his just reward from stall gate No 1. But there are plenty of class individuals who could get the race run to suit. TRISTFUL would be deserving but has drawn wide. CAPOEIRA is very capable on his day. However, she tries Scottsville for the first time. SWEET SYMPHONY needed her last run and knows the track - she got going late to finish just behind the winner - and could take advantage. Watson on the comeback trail

BATTLE: CHAMPION TRAINER OUT IN FULL FORCE IN ORDER TO RETAIN DUBAI TITLE

➔ Salem bin Ghadayer has two decent runners in Jebel Ali topline.

Ed Marnane

Seven-time UAE Champion trainer Doug Watson is facing a tough battle to retain his crown. The American currently three wins behind Bhupat Seemar, will be eager to get among at the winners at Jebel Ali tomorrow, and give his title ambitions a boost and close the gap on Seemar.

Based at Red Stables in Dubai, Watson is taking a big team to the Dubai track's opening meeting of the year. In the feature in Race 5, an 1800m Handicap, Watson runs US import American Dancer, Exciting Days and Al Murqab, the mount of Pat Dobbs.

The last-named, a winner at Jebel Ali on his seasonal reappearance in October, holds the strongest claims of the trio and has a solid chance of taking the prize.

The Canadian-bred gelding wasn't beaten far on his most recent start when a staying on second to Desert Wisdom in a minor event over 1400m at Jebel Ali. The winner gave the form a major boost when giving the highly regarded Al Nefud a minor fright at Meydan last week.

Al Murqab is likely to find the step up to 1800m in his favour and can take his career tally to two on his sixth visit to Jebel Ali.

It's hard to ignore the claims of Prevent, a winner at Jebel Ali earlier in the season in the hands of Ray Dawson for his main employer Ahmad bin Harmash, a yard that has enjoyed a revival this season.

He failed to follow up next time, getting caught in the dying strides by Capla Crusader, the pair clear of Law Of Peace who went on to win a competitive handicap at Meydan eight days ago. Prevent, a consistent and reliable type, is ideally berthed in stall No 1, and can be trusted to give a good account.

IN FORM. Monoski has progressed with racing since returning from his summer break and must be a contender in Race 5 at Jebel Ali tomorrow. Picture: Racing And Sport

Top-weight Tenbury Wells caught the eye on his local debut for new trainer Salem bin Ghadayer in November. Ridden by Royston Ffrench, he lost out narrowly to the progressive Remorse having travelled nicely throughout the race. It was a highly encouraging performance on his first start on dirt from the well-bred gelding.

He has disappointed twice since, the latest when was pulled up behind Down On Da Bayou. He had a valid excuse and was found to be lame after the race. If he can bounce back, he's worth giving another chance.

Monoski, bin Ghadayer's second runner, has the assistance of Royston Ffrench and has progressed with racing since returning from his summer break. Runner-up in his last two races, he ought to go well and demands respect.

George Villiers, returning after a lengthy break, looks Zabeel Stables main hope with Tadhg O'Shea up.

He chased home the course specialist Just A Penny on his only start at Jebel Ali. He's having his first run since being gelded.

Bin Ghadayer and Ffrench team up with Rawy in Race 2, a 1200m maiden. Owned by RRR Racing, he ran well on his racecourse debut at Meydan when second to Summer Is Tomorrow, keeping on nicely in the closing stages. In a modest looking event, he will take plenty of beating and rates the best bet on the card.

Sadaaty, trained on the track by Nicholas Bachalard, is an interesting runner on his first start in public. By Munnings, sire of the smart filly Shahama, he's bred to be useful and cost connections $380,000 (R5.8m) at Keeneland's September Yearling Sale. If the market speaks in his favour, he merits consideration.

Racing ends with another maiden, over 1600m, in which 14 go to post. Pat Dobbs has chosen Hero d'Oro, the well-bred five-year-old has looked one-paced in all his three runs his races since joining Red Stables. The stiff test at Jebel Ali is likely to suit and its significant Dobbs has elected to keep the ride on the son of Medaglia d'Oro.

Sam Hitchcott has picked up the ride Sharp Spun. He shaped with promise on his first start for Watson when splitting Rakeez and Sheringham in a similar event at Jebel Ali before Christmas.

Having his first start for 293 days, he was noted putting in his best work in the closing stages and is entitled to step forward for the race.

A full field of 16 has been declared for Race 4, a 1400m handicap. Fawaareq, owned by Shadwell, is the only last-start winner in the field and holds sound claims of following up for Doug Watson. He showed a willing attitude to catch Dangerous Thought close home in a 1200m handicap at this course, snapping a lengthy losing run going back to July 2016.

Ahmad bin Harmash-trained Triple Venture, an unexposed colt, is worth considering despite flopping on his handicap debut at Meydan last time. He weakened badly in the closing stages having looked a threat off the hometurn over 1900m.

He showed promise on his debut behind Zero To Hundred, leaving the impression he was a future winner.

He travels strongly in his races, suggesting dropping back the son of Elusive Quality in distance is a wise decision.

FORECAST BETTING 15-10 DHANTERAS; 2-1 MISS OTIS; 7-1 ELUSIVE ROCKET; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW This is not a strong Work Rider's Maiden Plate and Paul Peter could start off well. DHANTERAS is improving with racing and should open her account on the third time of asking. Stable companion ELUSIVE ROCKET showed improvement last time and could get into the reckoning. MISS OTIS has shown in-and-out form but if it puts it in could make a race of it. MIDFIELD GIRL appears held on her last run while MON TRESOR is looking to improve.

FORECAST BETTING 8-10 ABLAAN; 5-2 ZANETTO; 6-1 LOOK YOURSELF; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW ABLAAN has won both his starts to date and has a undeniable chance of completing a hat-trick, however, another Silvano progeny, filly ZANETTO, was backed and duly won on debut. She receives 5.5kg and her form has been franked. She is out to remain unbeaten. LOOK YOURSELF needed her last outing and will be all to stop them. Others are looking for minor money.

Lim's Kosciuszko to keep unbeaten record intact

Luke Middlebrook

A high-quality Kranji Stakes A race over 1200m on turf is slated as the feature event at Kranji tomorrow, where there is a 12-race card for the third meeting of the 2022 season.

There's also plenty of talent on the undercard. Of those, unbeaten four-year-old LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO for trainer Daniel Meagher makes his eagerly awaited return in the Class 3 Handicap over 1200m on turf.

LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO has done nothing wrong so far, boasting an unblemished record of four wins from as many starts. He was most impressive last time when showing blistering early toe and leading all the way to score by 3.50 lengths over this track and distance. His winning time of the race, which was a Class 4 event, was only 0.02 seconds slower than the Class 1 race won by top class sprinter KHARISMA on the same day.

Resuming off a 62-day break, LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO is well prepared with two barrier trials for his return, and he looks all set to continue his winning ways.

Elsewhere, promising five-year-old KING'S COMMAND is one on whom to keep a keen eye as he returns in the Kranji Stakes C race over 1600m on turf.

KING'S COMMAND had been on a winning streak of two before finishing a credible eighth in the Group 1 Singapore Gold Cup last start. Drawn wide on that occasion, the Tavistock gelding settled towards the rear of the field before reeling off the third fastest final 400m (24.17 sec) to flash home late, missing by 4.75 lengths on the wire.

KING'S COMMAND outperformed his rating that day and looks in for a big season. This week's race, however, is a small and tactically tricky affair.

Stablemate RED OCEAN may be left alone enough on the lead to get the job done while the likes of SPECIAL OPS demand plenty of respect.

PREVIEW: 1st Pick: KING'S COMMAND (1) Very smart win last start over this distance. Jumped wide and covered ground but still too strong and he will be hard to hold out again in this. 2nd Pick: SKY EYE (2) Meets a field where he is a genuine Top 3 player. A consistent galloper who has just run into some tougher opposition but never far away in a finish. 3rd Pick: SNIP (9) On the quick back-up after last week where he finished in fourth position, not far from the winner. Likes the distance and can sneak into the multiples up in class again. 4th Pick: LIM'S ZOOM (6) The 2022 season's opening winner. Was ridden more forward than usual that day and duly obliged. This is tougher, but he can still take a hand in this.

TIPS: 1 DON DE LA VEGA 7 FORESTO 11 SUN ACE 2 FORT MUSTANG

PREVIEW: 1st Pick: DON DE LA VEGA (1) Last trip down to Class 5 for mile contest in June 2021, he won and went straight back to Class 4. As a result, he needs to be respected amongst this quality of company again. 2nd Pick: FORESTO (7) Last run on the all-weather was super impressive. Back to the turf here with weight relief again from Jerlyn Seow Poh Hui. Draw a slight concern but last start had plenty of merit and he should be respected as a threat here. 3rd Pick: SUN ACE (11) Back to the right mark now to show his best. Needed the run after knocking up quite bad in the final stages. Expecting him to be making own luck up in front and being the one they are chasing home at the turn. 4th Pick: FORT MUSTANG (2) From the right stable for this type of race. Has been met with quite a few mid-race collisions in his last couple starts and still ran well. With a little more luck in running, he could very well see himself in the finish.

PREVIEW: 1st Pick: ILLUSTRIOUS (1) Manoel Nunes has done plenty of work with this gelding during the break and the trainer/jockey combination boasts 70% together, so you must respect. One for one over the course and distance. 2nd Pick: ROCKETSHIP (3) Very respectable run last start behind King Arthur who looks set to win again this week in a different race. She does her best racing on this surface and will be running on. 3rd Pick: ATTILA (2) Won an Open Maiden at his very first start here. Looked to do it with ease but now needs to step up against some more experienced winners. 4th Pick: NO MORE DELAY (7) Won his maiden with a touch of class late last year. That was on the turf but he shows some good ability and will be competitive here.

BETTING: 15-10 HAPPY MOMENT; 22-10 COUSTEAU; 9-2 MISTER DYNAMO; 7-1 HYDE PARK; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

TIPS: 2 COUSTEAU 1 HAPPY MOMENT 4 HYDE PARK 5 LIM'S KNIGHT

PREVIEW: 1st Pick: COUSTEAU (2) Key booking with Manoel Nunes on and thrives at this distance where all five of his career victories have come. Big player and the one to beat. 2nd Pick: HAPPY MOMENT (1) Scratched from his last start and looks set to be a key runner in this. Only the one start over the distance and was victorious on that occasion. 3rd Pick: HYDE PARK (4) Only a small field here and they will be flying along early. He won't be far away of them and could sneak into the top three at a distance he goes well at. 4th Pick: LIM'S KNIGHT (5) Nice run behind King Arthur where he was only a few lengths from him on the line. This doesn't look as strong as that day.

TIPS: 4 CIZEN LUCKY 5 BIG MARY 7 SEE YAH 6 MILITARY CHAIRMAN

PREVIEW: 1st Pick: CIZEN LUCKY (4) Rarely runs a bad one in this grade so that should give punters some confidence. Copped interference in the straight and was beaten 0.3 length. Returned just before new year for trial and was well held together throughout. Looks the one. 2nd Pick: BIG MARY (5) Big-trial win to the eye. On the clock however, he came home in a respectable time for a Class 5 runner. Overall, she looks in good order for her first run of 2022. 3rd Pick: SEE YAH (7) This son of Helmet will be looking for an honest pace and if he gets that, he should be running on from the back late. Now with a new stable, so the downhill is there isn't much of a guide on how he is going. 4th Pick: MILITARY CHAIRMAN (6) Trained in behind Big Mary. Final run of 2021 was nice enough, beaten 3.7L by Intrepid who steps out in the other division. Been a while since his last win but could figure in the finish here if he brings his best.

TIPS: 7 STARLIGHT 2 KHARISMA 4 CELAVI 3 MAKKEM LAD

PREVIEW: 1st Pick: STARLIGHT (7) Runner-up to stablemate Celavi in the Merlion Trophy, and who will be more at home on turf and can turn the tables. In fine fettle, jumps from a low draw and looks well in on weights. Watch him close in late. 2nd Pick: KHARISMA (2) Out Celavi back a little in the Merlion Trophy but was left with too much to do from the trip out wide. Handler barrier can see a reversal of fortunes. Top chance. 3rd Pick: CELAVI (4) Brilliant mare who has both settled better and strengthened up. Turf remains unconquered territory, but trainer is convinced she can handle it. If she does, the others will probably see a clean set of heels again. From the wide gate, she may take a drop on leading bunch. 4th Pick: MAKKEM LAD (3) Game frontrunner who may well be the one who leads in a race with a lot of pace. Always a threat when left alone in front, but may find a couple better this time.

PREVIEW: ACE TIME has shown notable improvement of late, winning back-to-back starts, including when scoring with plenty in hand at Uttoxeter last month. The eight-year-old can remain on the upward curve and get the better of Alberic, who pulled well clear of the rest when runner-up at Hereford on his latest outing. Karakoram made up plenty of ground when winning at Taunton last time and also makes the shortlist. FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: KOTKI (R2 091 692), ABOVE SUSPICION (R543 531). PREVIEW: A case can be made for all of these but the vote goes to RACE CARD, who got off the mark over 1m4f at Wolverhampton last week and a 5lb penalty (essentially 4lb as he was 1lb wrong that day) may not be enough to stop him this afternoon. Lady Pendragon was only beaten a neck over C&D last month and she has to be on the shortlist, while CAFE SYDNEY is another to consider.

FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: LADY PENDRAGON (R426 352), CAFE SYDNEY (R371 594). TOP 1ST 3%: SOUJIRE SECRET (67%), REECETLIC (50%). RESTED: REECETLIC (197 days).

PREVIEW: NUBLE is bound to be popular in her bid for a hat-trick but a 5lb penalty for her narrow victory over C&D last weekend has to be a concern. With that in mind, preference is for CLASSY DAME, who is a dual C&D winner and she was only beaten a short head here when last seen 11 days ago. Who Cares Wins edges out Gleneaglet and Santa Florentina to be the pick of the rest.

FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: SANTA FLORENTINA (R706 365), NUBLE (R513 952). TOP 1ST 3%: NUBLE (50%), WHO CARES WINS (33%).

PREVIEW: ALREADY GONE took a big step forward when stepped up to this trip last time and a repeat of that success could be on the cards off just 2lb higher. Mashkur was a length behind the selection in that contest and a first-time visitor might help him get even closer here, while Achnamara made a decent first of things when second on his handicap debut over a similar trip at Wolverhampton last time. Handicap debutant Silverscape is another who cannot be ignored in a competitive affair.

PREVIEW: JASTAR ran a blinder on his first start for George Boughey over 6f here 11 days ago, finishing three-parts of a length behind a 78-rated opponent when giving her 5lb, and a repeat performance would make him tough to beat in this contest. He may also improve for stretching out in distance. Course-and-distance scorer Buraback looks to be on the improve and he warrants respect equipped with a first-time hood, while Hometowne and Irish Millions also hold claims.

FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: JASTAR (R678 098), IRISH MILLIONS (R477 338). TOP 1ST 3%: JASTAR (60%), BURABACK (40%). RESTED: IRISH MILLIONS (62 days), PROVINCE (232 days).

PREVIEW: ACRION made a pleasing enough start to his racing career when fifth over 7f at Southwell last month and it's worth noting that the third from that race has won since. Dropping in trip is unlikely to bother him and a tongue-tie is now fitted, so he gets the nod in a tricky event. Perfect Focus should go close if running to his mark of 73 but that is far from certain, while Canzone and Mahale also have bits and pieces of form which give them a chance.

FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: CANZONE (R525 615), PERFECT FOCUS (R499 359). TOP 1ST 3%: PERFECT FOCUS (50%), MAHALE (50%). RESTED: BUTCHEROFSTOCKHOLM (306 days), MAHALE (142 days).

BETTING: 13-8 PROPELLED; 5-2 BUTCH; 5-1 MR GOLD, ODIN'S QUEST; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 4 PROPELLED 1 BUTCH 3 MR GOLD. PREVIEW: Propelled's purchase price went from 40,000 pounds as a yearling to 65,000 euros as a three-year-old and the son of Kapparde, out of Nicky Henderson's classy hurdler Polly Peachum, is likely to go well for the Seven Barrows handler. Anita's Spirit and Mr Gold are other names to conjure with but slight preference is for BUTCH. A full-brother to a pair of bumper winners, including a stablemate of his, Olly Murphy's son of Kayl Tara could make his debut a winning one here.

BETTING: 13-8 RUSSIAN RUMOUR; 5-1 HOLLY HARTINGO; 4-1 HOLLY HARTINGO; 10-1 PARISIAN BLUE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 4 HILLFINCH 2 RUSSIAN RUMOUR 1 HOLLY HARTINGO. PREVIEW: Russian Rumour found things tough when finishing fifth in a Listed event at Haydock last month but this looks to be an easier assignment for her despite having to carry a 5lb penalty, while Holly Hartingo is another who has to give weight away to her rivals after her latest victory at Ludlow. For those reasons preference is for HILLFINCH, who caught the eye when making late headway to finish third in this contest over 2m and she could find improvement, now tackling this longer trip.

FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: RUSSIAN RUMOUR (R1 554 080), HILLFINCH (R305 413). TOP 1ST 3%: HOLLY HARTINGO (100%), HILLFINCH (67%).

PREVIEW: Blue Flame won narrowly over this trip at Newcastle late last month and is only 2lb higher here, while Keep Right On gained a deserved success over this course and distance last time and has been given the same rise in the handicap. Always Dreaming cannot be ignored after going close at Wolverhampton latest, but preference is for CAPLA SPIRIT. Gay Kelleway's gelding got within half a length of success over this C&D earlier this month and gets another chance off the same mark.

FACT FILE: TOP EARNERS: RUN FORREST RUN (R614 971), NEFARIOUS (R534 836). TOP 1ST 3%: KEEP RIGHT ON (67%), CAPLA SPIRIT (67%). RESTED: RUN FORREST RUN (65 days), CAFE GRECO (294 days).

TIPS: 3 LORD SPARKY 5 ALLARDYCE 1 LOUD AS LIONS. PREVIEW: Lord Sparky's tendency to jump left didn't cause him too many problems when successful over this course and distance two starts ago, but it didn't help during a lifeless display at Southwell last time. Invincible Cave didn't look the most straightforward when second at Lingfield latest, while Allardyce could be better upped in trip after being outpaced at Worcester last time, but preference is for LOUD AS LIONS. Tom Symonds' gelding was gifted a soft lead when successful here last time, but he never looked like being caught and his 2lb rise is negated by Jordan Naylor's claim.

PREVIEW: Propelled's purchase price went from 40,000 pounds as a yearling to 65,000 euros as a three-year-old and the son of Kapparde, out of Nicky Henderson's classy hurdler Polly Peachum, is likely to go well for the Seven Barrows handler. Anita's Spirit and Mr Gold are other names to conjure with but slight preference is for BUTCH. A full-brother to a pair of bumper winners, including a stablemate of his, Olly Murphy's son of Kayl Tara could make his debut a winning one here.

STRONG CARD: 2022 DUBAI WORLD CUP CARNIVAL KICKS OFF AT MEYDAN

➔ Majestic Mambo to improve back on the turf in Race 3.

Ed Marnane

The opening meeting of the 2022 Dubai World Cup Carnival at Meydan today is a cracking seven-race card, headlined by a strong renewal of the Al Maktoum Challenge Round I.

The Group 2 event over 1600m on dirt has attracted a stellar line-up, led by Godolphin Mile winner Secret Ambition, one of five runners representing bang-in-form Bhupat Seemar.

Based at Zabeel Stables in Dubai, Seemar is enjoying a remarkable campaign since getting his licence in November and is operating at a 19% strike-rate at Meydan.

Secret Ambition, the choice of Tadhg O'Shea, is the oldest horse in the 14-runner contest and makes his seasonal reappearance. The son of Exceed And Excel, a confirmed front-runner, is nicely drawn in stall No 5 and if primed and ready following a near 10-month break, has strong claims of registering an eighth victory at Meydan and advertising his claims for the Saudi Cup next month.

The former Clive Cox-trained Salute The Soldier has thrived in the Middle East since switched to dirt and joining Fawzi Nass, winning the final two legs of the Al Maktoum Challenge last season.

He must be respected despite being off the track since March when finishing a creditable fifth behind Mystic Guide in the Dubai World Cup. He goes well fresh and hails from a yard enjoying a fantastic season, particularly at Meydan having sent out four winners from just 13 runners.

Doug Watson, successful with Kimbear in the 2020, fields a strong team led by last season's runner-up Thegreatcollection, Golden Goal and Midnight Sands, winner of six of his eight races at Meydan.

Pat Dobbs, Watson's stable jockey, remains loyal to Midnight Sands. The six-year-old has to bounce back after a lacklustre effort in the Dubai Creek Mile, weakening in the closing stages to finish eight lengths behind Tuz on his first start of the campaign.

Thegreatcollection, the mount of Pat Cosgrave, made an encouraging comeback in the same race, staying on nicely to chase home the Seemar-trained winner. He's entitled to strip fitter for the race and is one to consider.

Golden Goal, who holds the 1400m dirt track record at Meydan, was less than two lengths behind Thegreatcollection in the Dubai Creek Mile, a pleasing effort on his seasonal debut. From an inside gate, he should enjoy a ground saving trip and can't be overlooked in an open race.

The ex-Godolphin owned Eastern World, an AE220,000 (R930,000) purchase at the Racing In Dubai Sale in September, made a very good start for new connections when second to Tuz last month on his first start on the dirt surface at Meydan. By Dubawi, the most successful sire on Meydan's main track, he shaped as he would step forward for the race, understandable having been off the track since June.

Trained by Ahmad bin Har-mash, he could provide his talented rider Ray Dawson with the biggest win of his career.

William Buick has been booked to ride the exciting and unbeaten Kafoo, trained by Seemar. Formerly trained by Bob Baffert, he created a big impression on his racecourse debut, defeating Al Maroom and eight others in scintillating fashion in a 1600m maiden at this course in November.

Raised in class next time, the son of Curlin had to battle hard and eventually prevailed by a short head from Prince Eiji, showing a likeable attitude for an inexperienced colt. He will have learnt plenty from that and is one for the shortlist.

The Cape Verdi, the Group 2 for fillies and mare, is the highlight of the rest of the card and this year's renewal, run over a 1600m on grass, has attracted Down On Da Bayou, Mnasek and Soft Whisper, all former Classic winners at Meydan.

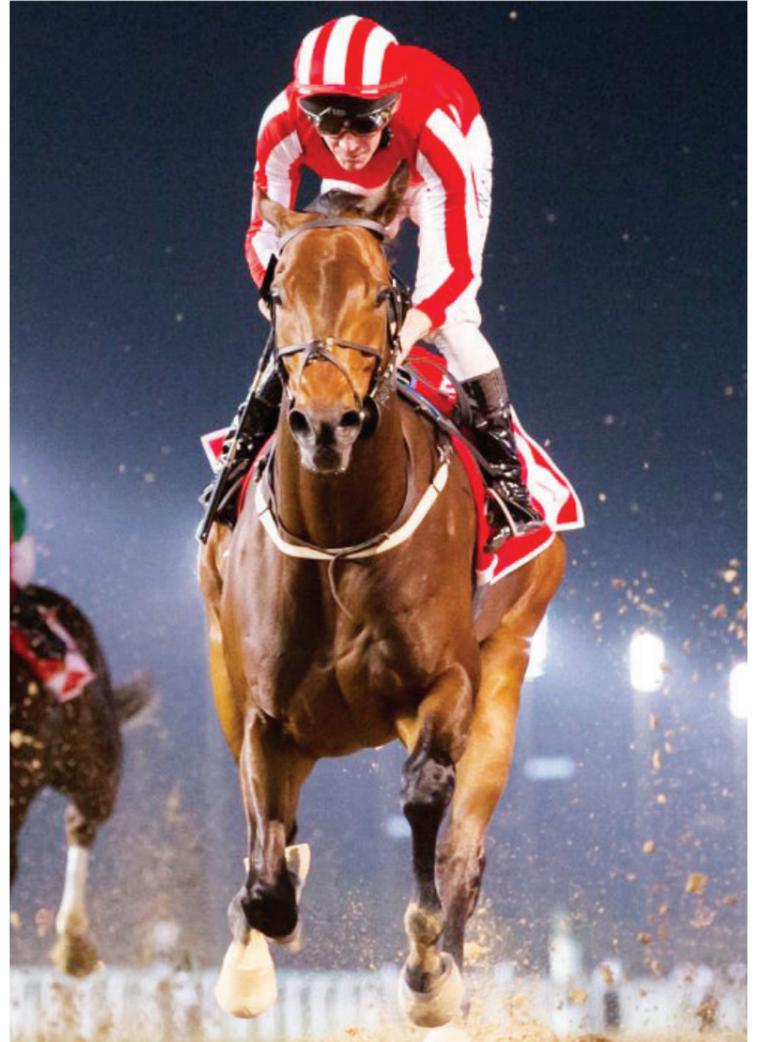

Saeed bin Suroor, the most successful trainer in the history of the race with five wins, trains Soft Whisper, winner of the UAE 1000 Guineas last season.

Winner of half of her six races on turf, she boasts the highest handicap rating, 106, and looks the one to beat in what looks a below average renewal. She has the assistance of Franke Dettori and should prove too classy for her nine rivals.

Charlie Appleby, seeking a fourth consecutive victory, is represented by Wedding Dance, the daughter of Shamardal, owned and bred by Godolphin, is a lightly raced filly who arrives in Dubai on the back of a career high performance on the all-weather at Wolverhampton two months ago. She recovered from a tardy start before running out a comfortable winner of a minor event. She can emerge the chief threat to Soft Whisper.

Majestic Mambo, Mike de Kock's only runner on the card, is fitted with first-time blinkers when he faces 15 rivals in Race 3.

The Mambo In Seattle gelding struggled on his seasonal reappearance, trailing in a distance behind Desert Peace when the race was switched to dirt after heavy rain caused the cancellation of all turf races on New Year's

BIG RUNNER. Salute The Soldier could be the best of Bhupat Seemar's quintet in today's Group 2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round I over 1600m on dirt at Meydan, the opening meeting of the 2022 Dubai World Cup Festival. Picture: Dubai Racing Club

Day. He should relish the switch to turf and has each-way claims at decent odds if he can reproduce his form in the Abu Dhabi Championship (Group 3) on his final outing last season. It was encouraging his stable companion Magical Land ran so well last week.

Mega pool, mega EPL games

➔ What a Saturday as Manchester City and Chelsea square up in an English Premier League top-of-the-table clash at the Etihad followed later by the chance of a huge win in a R28-million Soccer 13 pool.

By Mark Gleeson

A R28-million TAB Soccer 13 pool and the chance of winning a mountain of cash add loads of excitement to the soccer scene tomorrow, when the English Premier League returns after FA Cup action last weekend with a top-of-the-table clash that could yet prove decisive in the race for the title.

There are still many games to go, but if City win they will go 13 points clear of Chelsea and stay at least 11 ahead of Liverpool, who do have a game in hand.

City can be hauled in if they have a major slump and there is the distraction of Champions League next month, but that said it's hard to see any calamity befalling Pep Guardiola's men.

It means Chelsea must pull off a shock win tomorrow to re-ignite the title race. They did turn in an impressive midweek performance in again beating Spurs and booking their place in the League Cup final. That will give them hope for the trip to Manchester, even if they have drawn four of their past five league games. It's an early kick-off and the match is consequently not included in the bonanza Soccer 13 pool, which kicks off with a R9.5-million carryover.

The following day Liverpool are home to Brentford in a match they should win even without Sadio Mane and Mohammed Salah. A more difficult opponent would have made their absence a much bigger problem for Jurgen Klopp's team and it's a chance for the likes of Bobby Firmino and Diogo Jota to step up.

Sunday's North London derby between Arsenal and Tottenham is pivotal for both. Spurs' losses to Chelsea in the League Cup mean the pressure is on to buy more players, something manager Antonio Conte clearly wants to happen although he is skeptical about what he can get in the January transfer market.

Arsenal play away for a third successive time after the shock FA Cup loss to Nottingham Forest and last night's League Cup tie at Anfield.

TAB soccer fans will find plenty of opportunities for upsets in Bundesliga, Ligue 1 and Serie A games included in TAB soccer pools, given the impact of COVID-19 on many teams and their unavailability of top players in quarantine.

In Italy there is a key game for log-leaders Inter Milan away at Atalanta. Trips to Bergamo are always difficult and an Atalanta win will throw the title race wide open.

BURKINA CAPTAIN HIT BY COVID

COVID-19 testing at the Africa Cup of Nations finals continues to deliver plenty of positive results with many teams impacted. Burkina Faso captain Bertrand Traore is among the latest and will miss the weekend's match, but Cape Verde islands should have coach Bubi back after he could not travel to Cameroon initially because he had to isolate.

BELGIUM FEELS COVID-19 IMPACT

Belgium's top league resumes this weekend after a winter break but collectively teams will have 23 players missing, all called up by their respective countries for the Cup of Nations in Cameroon. Gent are among the hardest hit for tonight's game against Kortrijk.

HAALAND WANTS GOALS IN 2022

Erling Haaland goes in search of his first goals of 2022 tonight when Borussia Dortmund host surprise package Freiburg tonight. Haaland didn't score but had a hand in all three goals as Dortmund hit back from 2-0 down to beat Eintracht Frankfurt 3-2 last weekend. The result, coupled with leaders Bayern Munich's 2-1 home loss to Borussia Mönchengladbach, enabled second-placed Dortmund to close the gap to six points.

DIGNE HAS A CRACK AT RAFA

Lucas Digne has aimed a parting shot at Everton boss Rafa Benitez with the Aston Villa-bound defender posting an emotional farewell message to Toffees fans ahead of his move. The French full-back, 28, is on the verge of joining Villa in a 25-million Pound deal after dropping down the pecking order at Goodison Park following reports of a rift with Benitez.

JOSE MAY PLAY NEW MIDFIELDER

Roma's new Portuguese international signing Sergio Oliveira could play this weekend after joining on a one-million Euro loan deal from FC Porto with an option to buy for 13-million Euros. The central midfielder thus joins up with Portuguese coach Jose Mourinho.
