Smorgasbord a tasty bet

CHANGE: PETER'S CHARGE APPEARS TO HAVE IMPROVED WITH GELDING

» Quantum King looks the main threat.

Jack Milner

elding seems to have done the trick for Smorgasbord who bounced back to his best in his first race after having the surgical procedure done.

Very highly rated by trainer Paul Peter, this son of Twice Over looked to be heading straight to the top after winning on debut by 3.25 lengths. His future seemed even brighter when three winners came out of that form line but unfortunately he started to have behavioural issues.

When it became clear there was no other option Smorgasbord was gelded.

The three-year-old returned to racing on 30 December over 1200m at the Vaal, and despite a slow start, came from last and won more comfortably than the winning margin of 0.90 lengths

Tomorrow he will again race

IMPRESSIVE. Aragosta (Richard Fourie) had a great warm-up for the SA Triple Crown races, flying up late to catch stablemate Clafoutis a few strides from the post in the Grade 3 Sea Cottage Stakes over 1800m on the Inside track at Turffontein on Saturday. Picture: JC Photographics over 1200m in Race 5, a MR 96 Handicap, this time on the Inside track at Turffontein, which means he will be running around the turn.

It should not be much of an issue as he has run at the course when finishing a 2.10-length third over 1450m in a much stronger field. That race was won by Mike de Kock-trained Sparkling Water, who has since gone on to win the Grade 3 Victory Moon Stakes and will be contesting a Grade 2 feature at Kenilworth in Cape Town on 29 January. Gavin Lerena rode him to victory last time and will be on board for this race.

His main threat is likely to come from another three-yearold, Quantum King, from the Johan Janse van Vuuren yard.

He has run three times over the course and distance for two wins and a second so he extremely comfortable on this track. He will be in receipt of 4kg from Smorgasbord but Peter will have some idea of how good the match-up between the two will be as he has a line through another of his run-

Freed From Desire beat Quantum King by a head, giving him 0.5kg and he will have some idea where Smorgasbord will fit into this picture.

Keagan de Melo has been engaged to ride Quantum King.

Katak strikes in Singapore

Trainer Ricardo Le Grange was a relieved and thankful man after well-credentialled South African import Katak opened his Singapore account at his fifth start on Saturday.

The 2020 Cape Winter Series winner has not quite lived up to his South African billing in four Kranji starts, including the last three in the Group 1 events other than a close second to Hard Too Think in the Queen Elizabeth II Cup over 1800m in October.

But visible signs of improvement have been seen on the training tracks since the December break, franked by a winning barrier trial last week.

Lined up in Saturday's $85,000 (R955,000) Class 2 race over 1400m, he came across from his wide alley to sit alongside the well-backed and expected raceleader Nepean (Manoel Nunes).

Danny Beasley allowed the five-year-old son of Potala Palace to draw on level terms with Nepean turning for home.

The tussle was brief. Katak gave Nepean's resistance short shrift to put a space of two lengths on the rest.

Le Grange said he had already been taken by what he saw from Katak in the parade ring - a more collected demeanour that could only be more conducive for a first visit at the Kranji winner's circle.

"He has settled so much better. He wasn't sweating, he was conserving his energy so well, when he used to use it up a lot before the race last time," said the South African handler whose second runner Pennywise (A'Isisuhairi Kasim) ran a creditable fifth.

"Mind you, he's still not fully wound up, and that first race back will bring him on.

"I will now run him in a Class 1 race over the mile on 26 February, and probably look for another race before the Kranji Mile, which is his main target." - Singapore Turf Club

Marcus faces an epic ride in KZN

Jack Milner

Many punters follow Anton Marcus as he does ride a lot of winners. Knowing that, bookmakers tend to price up everything he rides shorter than they probably should be.

However, it is a little unfair to expect him to win on everything he rides.

Having said that, he does have some decent rides on Hollywoodbets Scottsville today and hopefully he can ride a winner

Ancient Epic's last races entitles her to being the form choice for Marcus in Race 6, a MR 73 Handicap for fillies and mares over 1000m.

While there are useful sorts in the race, she looks the best of them as she has yet to run out of the money and more importantly, backed up her maiden win with a second place in better company last time out.

That formline has produced two recent winners in Princess Donnelly and Purple Merchant, who finished behind her.

The two strongest contenders in Race 8, a Maiden Plate over 1600m, are Marcus-ridden Napoleon and Cyber Time with Muzi Yeni up. Napoleon was a bit costly to follow when a beaten favourite last time - he may not have enjoyed the slow track and slow-run race.

But despite a wide draw, Marcus has stuck with him.

However, Cyber Time, although improving, has an even wider draw so that should level the playing fields.

FORECAST BETTING 7-2 TRAVELING WILBURY; 9-2 SUPER HANDSOME, SOUTHERN SONG; 8-1
IDEAL WOLFF; 10-1 CATEGORY FOUR, IMPERIOUS LIGHT; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW SUPER HANDSOME stays best in this field and despite top weight could keep challengers at bay, TRAVELING WILBURY receives 8.5kg from him which could sway things in her favour - respect. SOUTHERN SONG is bred to stay all day but needs to go on with it. CATEGORY FOUR is versatile but finds problems.

IDEAL WOLFF shouldn't be far off on collateral form. APOLLO ROBBINS could take home a cheque.

TIPS 10 EXCELING 6 RINGO STARLIGHT 1 THOMAS EQUINAS

PREVIEW The progressive RINGO STARLIGHT looked unlucky not to score when a fast-finishing second at Southwell last week, finding himself poorly placed, and the Amy Murphy-trained gelding is fancied to notch up his third all-weather win today. Exceling registered her second success over course and distance last time and is a danger, while Thomas Equinas drops in trip and also merits consideration on his handicap debut. TIPS 4 TOM MIX 6 WON LOVE 7 SIR GREGORY

PREVIEW SIR GREGORY catches the eve on just his second start for Michael Appleby, after shaping better than the result suggests from an outside berth at Wolverhampton on his latest outing. Much better drawn this time, the Equiano gelding is tipped to step up and get the better of Won Love, who didn't get the rub of the green when well fancied at Lingfield last time. Tom Mix still has the scope to progress and cannot be discounted

TIPS 7 COVERT MISSION 11 CALIN'S LAD 14 FENNAAN

PREVIEW It is hard to look past COVERT MISSION, who impressed when getting off the mark over course and distance on his latest start. A 5lb rise may underestimate the ease of that win and the well-bred gelding can prove too classy for Calin's Lad, who ran well over an inadequate trip on his reappearance at Wolverhampton last time. Fennaan failed to settle on his stable debut at the Dunstall Park venue two weeks ago and may also figure now dropping in trip.

PREVIEW KABOO was highly thought of last season having been well backed for the Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot on his racecourse debut, when not disgraced in finishing sixth. He was highly tried on a couple of occasions after that before taking advantage of a drop in grade on his last couple of starts at Wolverhampt and Newcastle. Karl Burke's colt now steps back up in class and he is expected to have more to offer. PREVIEW Denied by the narrowest of margins over C&D earlier in the month, NO DIGGITY can gain compensation here and end a losing streak dating back to November 2020. John Butler's charge remains 8lb below his last winning mark and is preferred to Broughtons Compass, who won over C&D last time out, and Shadow Angel, who was an eye-catcher when second at Chelmsford. Broughtons Flare is another to consider having dropped down to his last winning mark, while Recuerdame could also have a say.

PREVIEW Trainer Mike Miller holds a strong hand. WOODLAND RETREAT was well supported but found one better on debut on the poly. She could make amends but her biggest danger could be ONLY HEARTS who looks the stable elect on riding arrangements. This filly but in a promising performance and was only just touched for on wet ground first time out. Another well-bred sort, ADITI, showed good pace in that race taking third but was beaten as favourite and could have lots more to come. More can earn but watch out for the first-timers - BAUBLES AND BEADS is bred for speed.

PREVIEW Nice race with a bunch of well-bred first-timers to make it interesting. GLADATORIAN may be the one to attract all the support as he is a well-bred son of Vercingetorix, but QUESTION MASTER and IRON MONGER should be precoclous and one needs to keep tabs on these. SUPERIOR FORCE has not disgraced himself in two starts and could get in the picture if not minding the switch from Greyville to Scottsville. COLOUR OF MONEY was beaten as favourite on debut and could improve plenty especially if the going comes up fast SILVER DUCAT must have a say as well.

FORECAST BETTING 6.1 PREEMPTIVE STRIKE, MASTER VISION, WINTER AIR; 7-1 BANZAI PIPELINE, CAPTAIN WHO; 8-1 PASHTUNWALI; 10-1 RADAMES; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.

PREVIEW 100 Tough race. PREEMPTIVE STRIKE has had good draws but has not capitalised. Still, he has run decent races and he may just appreciate this track with its longer straight. PASHTUNWALI ran a bit below par last time but might have just needed it and from a good gate could take advantage. He finished ahead of WINTER AIR but the latter ran out an impressive winner in his second start and could have more to come. However, along with BANZAI PIPELINE, WHISPERS OF WAR and CAPTAIN WHO, has his work cut out from a wide starting stall. MASTER VISION can score an overdue win this distance. stall. PREVIEW GO MAN GO was knocking at the door before a rest. He races fresh, has pole position, so should have every chance. VIA SALARIA will make it hard for him though. He has been knocking at the door and is now back at his favourite course. However, the stable elect could be SPRING HIGH on jockey bookings. The latter is in good form and should appreciate being back over 1400m. MR GONZALES won a nice race last time but may not have it all his own way in this stronger race. ARTIC TUNE needed his last race and is the one

PREVIEW Competitive fillies and mares handicap - go wide. FLYING THE STAR is back at her happy unting ground and should give a good account of herself if not minding the drop in trip, MISS LIALAH comes out of a good form race where she didn't finish far off the winner and was cut into in that race. However she drops to the minimum trip and will have a bit more to do at the business end of the race. ANCIENT EPIC maintained her form out the maidens with a solid second place finish in stronger and she rates the one to be with. STING RAY, SCENT OF A WOMAN and LUNA ECLIPSE have claims.

PREVIEW CYBER TIME has the form but not the draw. He has been brought along steadily and has not let his side down but will have to pull out all stops to open his account from draw No 13. Arch-rival NAPOLEON has also been given a task from a wide gate. He got the timing wrong it seems last time so is still learning and has room for improvement. NTABAZONDI was expected to make progress in his second start but had to avoid a faller in that race. He needs to be taken seriously as this longer straight must suit. COUNTRY ICE, LIKETHECLAP-PERS and THUNDER MASALA could show more.
